Hamrick Fund Earmarks $177 For Area Youth

The Trustees of the John Hamrick Youth Memorial Fund earmarked $177 during a breakfast meeting today to be spent for the benefit of Pickaway County Youth.

The largest portion of the monies, $75, will be given to the Phil Smith Playground for the purchase of equipment.

A drive is currently under way to raise funds to equip the playground. It is headed by Charlie Gilt, well known south-end merchant.

Other organizations to receive funds include the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, the 4-H clubs, the Circleville Youth Baseball Program and the Circleville Swim Team.

THE SCOUT organizations will receive $15 each. A total of $30 has been earmarked for 4-H Clubs and a like sum for the Youth Baseball Program.

The swim club will receive $12 to be used for the purchase of jackets for the team.

Earl Palm, chairman of the Youth Memorial Fund trustees, emphasized that the funds are to be spent in such a fashion as to directly benefit needy local youth.

The fund was established last year by friends of the George Hamrick family following the death of their young son, John.

The fund has grown to the extent that today it contains $1,683.27.

Present at today's meeting were Palm, Robert Waverling, Don Archer and George Hamrick.

Bogalusa's Whites Fight Integration

BOGALUSA, La. (AP) — Angry whites, fighting any move toward desegregation, pressed today for a recall election aimed at ousting the mayor.

About 500 whites milled around a bonfire rally in a city park Monday night after the park gates were ripped away.

Mayor Jesse Cutrer Jr., and the Commission Council had closed the all-white parks here last Wednesday after about 100 Negroes, staging a test picnic, were attacked by whites.

The recall petition was started by the Bogalusa Citizens Council after Cutrer announced the city's illegal segregation laws would be wiped off the books.

"I have to do what I think is right for the community," the mayor said. "You can't let those on the fringe lead. All I can see, otherwise, is chaos and violence and killing."

The Citizens Council accused the mayor of "going along with scalawags, carpetbaggers and outside agitators."

The council petition increased the pressure on Mayor Cutrer, 50, who has been in the uncomfortable middle between the Ku Klux Klan and civil rights workers for months.

Metric System for U.S. Coming?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Housewives, start thinking of butter at so much a kilogram and dress goods at so much a meter.

Husbands, try to picture vital dimensions of 9166-91.

This advice comes from Chairman George P. Miller of the House Committee on Science and Astronautics.

The California Democrat is one American who reacted with absolute delight to Britain's announcement that gradually it will institute the metric system of weight and measures.

"This passes our bill," Miller exclaimed to a reporter.

Like some others in Congress Miller has been calling for years for a study by the National Bureau of Standards of the problems that would be involved in putting the United States on the metric system.

They say use of the metric system would make it easier to relate U.S. technology to that of other nations.

So far the bill has moved hardly a millimeter in the face of opposition by members who don't think the results of such a study would be worth its cost, estimated by Miller at $200,000 to $500,000.

"When Britain goes through with this, we will be absolutely alone with our complicated outdated system of measurement," Miller said. "Our competitive position will be horrible. Have you noticed that our food package labels already carry a line giving the contents in grams?"

Miller, a spry 74, said he would waste no time pushing for the study that could lead to the substitution of meters, kilograms and liters for feet, pounds and quarts.

"We'll have hearings next month," he said. "This has got to come, and the sooner we get started, the sooner the confusion will be over."

Both MIGs, U.S. Jets Are Blamed

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Jet planes strafed a South Vietnamese outpost five miles from the 17th Parallel today and U.S. military spokesmen disagreed among themselves as to whether the raiders were Communist MIGs or straying American fighters.

Four planes hit the outpost at Gia Linn in a single pass, two shooting and two flying top cover, and then sped out to sea. Five Vietnamese were wounded, a truck was destroyed and a bulldozer was set afire.

U.S. military spokesmen at the Da Nang air base, about 100 miles from the scene, said the planes presumably were MIGs. He said, however, base intelligence officers had not finally determined what kind of aircraft was involved.

Brig. Gen. Nguyen Chanh Thi, Vietnamese military commander of the area, said he suspected they were Communist Chinese planes.

Thi reported witnesses told him the raiders were black MIGs with no wing markings. Other Da Nang sources, however, denied that the raiders were black.

American military spokesmen in Saigon, 380 miles farther south told newsmen the strafing was done by four U.S. jet fighters flying of course. Both Navy and Air Force planes were involved in raids during the day on North Viet Nam.

A high U. S. authority here said Vietnamese spotted white-American stars on the planes that hit the outpost and the initial investigation showed they fired 20-mm cannon shells.

"No MIGs are armed with 20mm cannon," he said. "Our best information indicates that the planes were not enemy aircraft."

This authority said a final report will be made after further investigation of the shell fragments, but added: "We are 99 per cent sure of our initial findings."

The American report in Da Nang that the planes were presumed to be MIGs was at first denied by a U.S. official in Saigon. Later he amended his statement, saying the U.S. (Continued on Page Two)

Priest Is Fined After Homemade Airplane Crashes

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Flying Father Patrick O'Kelly swung the propeller of the little plane he built and the engine started.

"The plane started to move forward," the 45-year-old priest told a magistrate Monday. "I ran around and had my hand in the cockpit when I slipped and fell."

"After hitting a bump the plane rose in the air, stalled and nose-dived."

The accident occurred at Belfast's Aldergrove Airport. The plane was a total wreck.

The magistrate fined the priest $112 on a charge of acting negligently in a manner likely to endanger an aircraft or its occupants and negligently causing danger to persons or property.

In 10 years of flying, Father O'Kelly has logged 400 hours and 35,000 miles in the air.

Heavy Highway Kill Predicted

CHICAGO (AP) — Heavy highway traffic over the long Memorial Day weekend will take up to 510 lives, the National Safety Council has predicted.

Of the national total, 22 lives will be taken in Ohio, according to the state highway safety officials.

The period covered by the estimate will run from 6 p.m. local time Friday, May 28, to midnight Monday, May 31.

U.S. Doubts Coalition Possible for Dominicans

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — The Dominican rebels were optimistic today and the Americans pessimistic about prospects for a coalition government. The junta showed no sign of giving way.

A rebel spokesman said negotiations to form a government headed by Antonio Guzman Fernandez, minister of agriculture under deposed President Juan Bosch, were "very advanced." Other rebel sources said the talks were nearing "a successful conclusion."

But a U.S. spokesman, noting strong opposition to Guzman from the junta, said prospects for a quick settlement were still dim. U.S. officials would only say that "a number of conversations have taken place and are continuing."

Sources close to the junta president, Brig. Gen. Antonio Imbert Barrera, said Imbert had not been consulted on the coalition government. He called in U.S. Ambassador W. Tapley Bennett Jr. and Jose A. Mora, secretary-general of the Organization of American States, to ask them for an explanation of the negotiations.

Bennett reportedly told Imbert that the United States was not trying to impose a government. However, the United States is known to favor Guzman as a compromise choice.

Imbert has been demanding that the rebels surrender and has refused to step aside in favor of a coalition. The rebel chief, Col. Francisco Caamano Deno, has said he would resign if an agreement is reached on the coalition.

The State Department announced that the 21,000 U.S. troops in the Dominican Republic are now under the command of the Inter-American Force formally created Sunday. Its commander is Gen. Hugo Panasco Alvim of Brazil. Lt. Gen. Bruce Palmer of the United States is deputy commander.

Besides the U.S. contingent, the Inter-American Force is made up of 1,250 Brazilians who began arriving today and small contingents from Costa Rica, Honduras, Nicaragua and El Salvador.

The troops are under the flag of the Organization of American States and wear yellow and blue shoulder patches.

Three-man international patrols, with a U.S. soldier, a Costa Rican and a Honduran in each jeep, began patrolling the U.S.-occupied international safety zone Monday.

School Teacher Quelled after She Fires at 2 Boys

CLAREMORE, Okla. (AP) — Neighbors of a brilliant teacher were stunned today by a barrage of shots she loosed at children, a motorist and police.

Officers fired tear gas into her locked home Monday to end 2½ hours of terror in this town of 6,500. Mrs. Betty Potts, 37, senior high school English teacher shot at two boys playing next door.

Sheriff Amos Ward said he tried to talk to her before entering, "but she kept calling everyone a Communist" and wouldn't listen.

The shooting ended after deputies broke down the door and carried Miss Potts out.

No one was injured in the gunfire.

She was taken to the psychiatric ward of a hospital.

Ruby Says He Took Pep-Up Pills Before Killing JFK's Assassin

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Ruby told Monday how he took numerous stimulant pills before killing presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald and then expressed fear that he and Oswald would be linked in the assassination.

"To the American people and the world . . . I'm going to be branded a part of a conspiracy with Oswald," said Ruby. "You're going to forget how I felt about the beloved President Kennedy. There has been so much torment, so much hardship."

Ruby's discourse, wandering from topic to topic and puncuated with emotional pauses, came during a hearing in which attorney Joe Tonahill, who was on Ruby's trial defense team, was taken out of the case for Ruby's forthcoming sanity hearing.

Tonahill's removal was ordered by Judge Louis T. Holland, Montague, Tex., who said the question of Ruby's counsel would be settled by the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals following the sanity hearing.

Ruby, his face pallid from a year in jail, said he took 30 antibiotic pills and others that "stimulate you and make you want to do positive things" after awakening on Sunday, Nov. 24, 1963, the day Oswald was shot to death.

He said he brooded about the Kennedy children being fatherless but noted, "what quirked me after that I don't know. As God is my judge, that is the truth."

Ruby repeatedly referred to "one of the most bizarre conspiracies in the history of the world" to link him to Oswald, escaping the electric chair.

"I know that I am a lost cause as far as saving my life — Don't believe Joe Tonahill — I know there is a whole conspiracy behind it," Ruby said. At another point, he noted, "I walked into a trap when I walked down that ramp (into the city hall basement where he shot Oswald). I know I am going to die a horrible death."

Speaking of that Sunday, he said, "I shouldn't have tried to play the part of a hero. My background wasn't clean enough to play the part of a hero."

He thanked Judge Holland for allowing him "to speak for myself because I never had attorneys to speak for me," and appeared to regret the use of his trial defense team, Tonahill, (Continued on Page 2)

Truce Called In Bolivia

Junta, Miners End Bloody Fight

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — Bolivia's military junta and its tin miners agreed Monday night to a cease-fire calling for an end to the miners' eight-day-old strike and withdrawal of troops from the mines.

The truce was signed after a battle between government forces and workers in the industrial suburbs of La Paz which continued into Monday night. At least 19 persons were killed and more than 70 wounded.

Heavy casualties were reported in mining centers south of the capital where miners tried to repel troops under government orders to occupy the state-owned mines.

The cease-fire agreement was signed by Gen. Alfredo Ovando Candia, the armed forces commander, and leaders of the Bolivian Drivers union who have been meditating the dispute between the junta and the leftist miners union.

Radio Mendez in La Paz said representatives of the two factions will meet in the capital to widen the agreement. The broadcast said it now stipulates that:

1. The miners will call off the strike they began May 17 to protest deportation of their leader, former Vice President Juan Lechin.

2. The junta will pull its troops out of tin mines they have occupied and stop their advance on other mining centers.

Bloody rioting erupted in La Paz last week following the start of the strike, and the junta sent 17 labor leaders into exile in Paraguay to join Lechin.

An armed band of gunmen tried to assassinate the president of the junta, Lt. Gen. Rene Barrientos, Saturday at the Kami mining center 140 miles south of La Paz. He escaped injury but one of his guards was killed. Four gunmen were captured.

Small GOP Bloc To Seek Slash in Foreign Aid Fund

WASHINGTON (AP) — A group of House Republicans who call themselves "a minority of the minority" plan today to try to cut up to $100 million from President Johnson's $3.37-billion foreign aid authorization bill.

One of the Republicans, Rep. E. Ross Adair of Indiana, told a reporter he expects to offer at least one or perhaps two amendments in that range to give House members who oppose foreign aid spending a chance to pare the authorization.

Adair was far from optimistic about his chances of succeeding. The composition of the House has changed since two years ago when he led a successful Republican attempt to slash foreign aid by more than $500 million.

Not only do Democrats have a top-heavy majority in the House, but they can count on considerable support among Republicans who traditionally have made the foreign aid program bipartisan.

Also militating against Adair's position is President Johnson's technique of sending Congress a "barebones" foreign-aid request.

Under President John F. Kennedy and prior to that, it was standard technique to ask Congress for far more in the full expectation that budget-minded congressmen would give the request a hefty cut before passing it.

Eaton Sees Major War In 4 Weeks

DETROIT (AP) — Cyrus S. Eaton, Cleveland financier and industrialist, predicts that the United States will be at war with China and Russia in "a week to four weeks" unless the bombing raids on North Viet Nam are halted.

Eaton made the prediction Monday in a speech before the Economic Club of Detroit.

Just one day after he returned from a tour that took him to the Communist capitals of Prague, Budapest and Moscow.

The 81-year-old Eaton said he met last Thursday with Russia's Premier Aleksei Kosygin and that he never had seen a man "so serious, so wrought up."

He quoted Kosygin as saying Russia was committed to the protection of North Viet Nam and was "left no alternative but to fight, go in with everything we have, and we will."

Eaton said there was "great probability" the "catastrophe" he predicted would be nuclear war.

He recommended that the United States pull out of Southeast Asia, saying "the French did and I think they've been rewarded by it."

Radcliffe Girls Told: Don't Egg on the Boys

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Radcliffe girls have been put on warning — don't egg on the boys from nearby Harvard or any other college in party raids or other spring capers.

Dean Catherine D. Williston warned of severe discipline for students guilty of infractions.

A group of students invaded the Radcliffe campus two weeks ago. With some urging by the girls, several youths scaled porch railings of one dormitory as high as the third floor.

Affairs Committee, told the House foreign aid "is not a miracle vaccine that will make every country in the world immune to communism."

He conceded it has failed in some cases and been a waste of money in others. But over-all, Morgan said, foreign aid has helped the United States win significant struggles against communism all over the world and is vital to U.S. security.

The authorization measure merely sets the ceiling for foreign aid spending. The actual money will be voted later in an appropriations bill.

Mine Blast Feared Fatal To 5 Men

ROBBINS, Tenn. (AP) — The body of one of five men trapped by an explosion inside a mountaintop coal mine near here was found early today, rescue officials reported.

Wary rescue workers still had several hundred feet of probing through foul air and debris ahead of them before the fate of the four other miners would be known. However, there was little hope they would be found alive.

The blast, which ripped through the shaft Monday, was so strong it leveled grass and weeds for several feet outside the mouth of the east Tennessee mine.

Pockets of gas, which apparently caused the explosion, remained in the Cumberland plateau pit and posed the threat of another blast.

Three rescue workers were overcome by gas Monday night and were taken to a hospital at Oneida, 20 miles north of here.

Telephone wire was strung inside the mine to set up communications. Timber was taken in to block off rooms that had bad air and to rebuild supports.

Charlie Welch, a foreman for the Highland Telephone Co., said a seven-man rescue squad was standing by equipped with a new type breathing apparatus.

State mine inspectors and veteran miners all but abandoned hope of finding any of the men alive. They said the violence of the explosion left little doubt that the men died instantly.

Escaped Elephant Tromps on Yards

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A man drove up to Police Chief John Kayser in suburban Upper Dublin Township Monday night and said there was an elephant loose on Route 309.

"Keep moving," Kayser said. A little later a woman walked up. "There is an elephant walking on the lawns near Bethlehem Pike."

This time Kayser checked with headquarters and learned the switchboard was flooded with calls that an elephant was indeed loose and walking on lawns.

The elephant, a 9,000-pound animal named Dolly, got away from handler Arthur Mason, after he took her and two others to a show at an orphan's home.

Vote Right Bill Debate Curbed

Passage of Law Seen Assured

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate clamped a tight time limit today on further debate on the voting rights bill urged by President Johnson. The action was regarded as assuring the measure's early passage.

The vote to put the Senate's cloture or debating-closing time into effect was 70 for and 30 against. This was three more than the required two-thirds majority.

The debate restriction limits to one hour each senator's speaking time on the bill and all amendments from now on.

Debate on the bill began April 22.

Most of the 100 senators will not make use of their allotted time and leaders were hopeful of passing the bill Wednesday, if not tonight.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., a key spokesman for Southern senators who have denounced the bill as unconstitutional, told newsmen he intended to call up 10 or 11 more amendments but would spend only a few minutes on each.

Silver Dollar Mint Order Is Canceled

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government has reversed itself and decided against issuing 45 million silver dollars.

The decision announced Monday night came just as the first silver dollars in more than 30 years were set to roll from the Denver Mint.

The Treasury is reluctant to mint silver dollars because both silver and minting facilities are needed to meet a continuing shortage of other coins and because government supplies of silver are running short.

President Johnson announced May 15 that substantial progress had been made in reducing the coin shortage and that he therefore was ordering minting of the car wheels authorized last year by Congress.

In reversing this decision, the Treasury said the go-ahead order was given on the assumption that it was the intent of Congress. Since May 15, the Treasury said, members of key congressional committees have asked that the order be held up.

Robert A. Wallace, assistant secretary of the Treasury, said seven members of a House Appropriations subcommittee agreed that the coins should not be produced.

A Treasury report due shortly is expected to recommend reduction or even elimination of the silver content of dimes, quarters and half dollars to conserve the government's dwindling stocks.

Bogalusa's Whites Fight Integration

Small GOP Bloc To Seek Slash in Foreign Aid Fund

WASHINGTON (AP) — A group of House Republicans who call themselves "a minority of the minority" plan today to try to cut up to $100 million from President Johnson's $3.37-billion foreign aid authorization bill.

One of the Republicans, Rep. E. Ross Adair of Indiana, told a reporter he expects to offer at least one or perhaps two amendments in that range to give House members who oppose foreign aid spending a chance to pare the authorization.

Adair was far from optimistic about his chances of succeeding. The composition of the House has changed since two years ago when he led a successful Republican attempt to slash foreign aid by more than $500 million.

Not only do Democrats have a top-heavy majority in the House, but they can count on considerable support among Republicans who traditionally have made the foreign aid program bipartisan.

Also militating against Adair's position is President Johnson's technique of sending Congress a "barebones" foreign-aid request.

Under President John F. Kennedy and prior to that, it was standard technique to ask Congress for far more in the full expectation that budget-minded congressmen would give the request a hefty cut before passing it.

Eaton Sees Major War In 4 Weeks

DETROIT (AP) — Cyrus S. Eaton, Cleveland financier and industrialist, predicts that the United States will be at war with China and Russia in "a week to four weeks" unless the bombing raids on North Viet Nam are halted.

Eaton made the prediction Monday in a speech before the Economic Club of Detroit—just one day after he returned from a tour that took him to the Communist capitals of Prague, Budapest and Moscow.

The 81-year-old Eaton said he met last Thursday with Russia's Premier Aleksei Kosygin and that he never had seen a man "so serious, so wrought up."

He quoted Kosygin as saying Russia was committed to the protection of North Viet Nam and was "left no alternative but to fight, go in with everything we have, and we will."

Eaton said there was "great probability" the "catastrophe" he predicted would be nuclear war.

He recommended that the United States pull out of Southeast Asia, saying "the French did and I think they've been rewarded by it."

Radcliffe Girls Told: Don't Egg on the Boys

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Radcliffe girls have been put on warning — don't egg on the boys from nearby Harvard or any other college in panty raids or other spring capers.

Dean Catherine D. Williston warned of severe discipline for students guilty of infractions.

A group of students invaded the Radcliffe campus two weeks ago. With some urging by the girls, several youths scaled porch railings of one dormitory as high as the third floor.

Small GOP Bloc To Seek Slash in Foreign Aid Fund

Affairs Committee, told the House foreign aid "is not a miracle vaccine that will make every country in the world immune to communism."

He conceded it has failed in some cases and been a waste of money in others. But over-all, Morgan said, foreign aid has helped the United States win significant struggles against communism all over the world and is vital to U.S. security.

The authorization measure merely sets the ceiling for foreign aid spending. The actual money will be voted later in an appropriations bill.

Mine Blast Feared Fatal To 5 Men

ROBBINS, Tenn. (AP) — The body of one of five men trapped by an explosion inside a mountain-side coal mine near here was found early today, rescue officials reported.

Wary rescue workers still had several hundred feet of probing through foul air and debris ahead of them before the fate of the four other miners would be known. However, there was little hope they would be found alive.

The blast, which ripped through the shaft Monday, was so strong it leveled grass and weeds for several feet outside the mouth of the east Tennessee mine.

Pockets of gas, which apparently caused the explosion, remained in the Cumberland plateau pit and posed the threat of another blast.

Three rescue workers were overcome by gas Monday night and were taken to a hospital at Oneida, 20 miles north of here.

Telephone wire was strung inside the mine to set up communications. Timber was taken in to block off rooms that had bad air and to rebuild supports.

Charlie Welch, a foreman for the Highland Telephone Co., said a seven-man rescue squad was standing by equipped with a new type breathing apparatus.

State mine inspectors and veteran miners all but abandoned hope of finding any of the men alive. They said the violence of the explosion left little doubt that the men died instantly.

Escaped Elephant Tromps on Yards

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A man drove up to Police Chief John Kayser in suburban Upper Dublin Township Monday night and said there was an elephant loose on Route 309.

"Keep moving," Kayser said. A little later a woman walked up. "There is an elephant walking on the lawn near Bethlehem Pike."

This time Kayser checked with headquarters and learned the switchboard was flooded with calls that an elephant was indeed loose and walking on lawns.

The elephant, a 9,000-pound animal named Dolly, got away from handler Arthur Mason, after he took her and two others to a show at an orphan home.

Vote Right Bill Debate Curbed

Passage of Law Seen Assured

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate clamped a tight time limit today on further debate on the voting rights bill urged by President Johnson. The action was regarded as assuring the measure's early passage.

The vote to put the Senate's cloture or debating-closing time into effect was 70 for and 30 against. This was three more than the required two-thirds majority.

The debate restriction limits to one hour each senator's speaking time on the bill and all amendments from now on.

Debate on the bill began April 22.

Most of the 100 senators will not make use of their allotted time and leaders were hopeful of passing the bill Wednesday, if not tonight.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., a key spokesman for Southern senators who have denounced the bill as unconstitutional, told newsmen he intended to call up 10 or 11 more amendments but would spend only a few minutes on each.

Silver Dollar Mint Order Is Canceled

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government has reversed itself and decided against issuing 45 million silver dollars.

The decision announced Monday night came just as the first silver dollars in more than 30 years were set to roll from the Denver Mint.

The Treasury is reluctant to mint silver dollars because both silver and minting facilities are needed to meet a continuing shortage of other coins and because government supplies of silver are running short.

President Johnson announced May 15 that substantial progress had been made in reducing the coin shortage and that he therefore was ordering minting of the coins authorized last year by Congress.

In reversing this decision, the Treasury said the go-ahead order was given on the assumption that it was the intent of Congress. Since May 15, the Treasury said, members of key congressional committees have asked that the order be held up.

Robert A. Wallace, assistant secretary of the Treasury, said seven members of a House Appropriations subcommittee agreed that the coins should not be produced.

A Treasury report due shortly is expected to recommend reduction or even elimination of the silver content of dimes, quarters and half dollars to conserve the government's dwindling stocks.

Red Chinese Army Ends Rank Insignia

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China announced today it is taking all visible marks of rank off the members of its armed forces, police and militia.

Elimination of insignia of rank would permit the Chinese to merge less conspicuously with the Communist Viet Cong in Viet Nam. The latter wear no badges of rank.

The announcement was taken in Tokyo as a further step to put Red China on a war footing because of the war in Viet Nam.

Both MIGs, U.S. Jets Are Blamed

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Jet planes strafed a South Vietnamese outpost five miles from the 17th Parallel today and U.S. military spokesmen disagreed among themselves as to whether the raiders were Communist MIGs or straying American fighters.

Four planes hit the outpost at Gia Linn in a single pass, two shooting and two flying top cover, and then sped out to sea. Five Vietnamese were wounded, a truck was destroyed and a bulldozer was set afire.

U.S. military spokesmen at the Da Nang air base, about 100 miles from the scene, said the planes presumably were MIGs. He said, however, base intelligence officers had not finally determined what kind of aircraft was involved.

Brig. Gen. Nguyen Chanh Thi, Vietnamese military commander of the area, said he suspected they were Communist Chinese planes.

Thi reported witnesses told him the raiders were black MIGs with no wing markings. Other Da Nang sources, however, denied that the raiders were black.

American military spokesmen in Saigon, 380 miles farther south told newsmen the strafing was done by four U.S. jet fighters flying of course. Both Navy and Air Force planes were involved in raids during the day on North Viet Nam.

A high U. S. authority here said Vietnamese spotted white-American — stars on the planes that hit the outpost and the initial investigation showed they fired 20-mm cannon shells.

"No MIGs are armed with 20mm cannon," he said. "Our best information indicates that the planes were not enemy aircraft."

This authority said a final report will be made after further investigation of the shell fragments, but added: "We are 99 per cent sure of our initial findings."

The American report in Da Nang that the planes were presumed to be MIGs was at first denied by a U.S. official in Saigon. Later he amended his statement, saying the U.S. (Continued on Page Two)

Priest Is Fined After Homemade Airplane Crashes

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Flying Father Patrick O'Kelly swung the propeller of the little plane he built and the engine started.

"The plane started to move forward," the 45-year-old priest told a magistrate Monday. "I ran around and had my hand in the cockpit when I slipped and fell."

"After hitting a bump the plane rose in the air, stalled and nose-dived."

The accident occurred at Belfast's Aldergrove Airport. The plane was a total wreck.

The magistrate fined the priest $112 on a charge of acting negligently in a manner likely to endanger an aircraft or its occupants and negligently causing danger to persons or property.

In 10 years of flying, Father O'Kelly has logged 400 hours and 35,000 miles in the air.

Heavy Highway Kill Predicted

CHICAGO (AP) — Heavy highway traffic over the long Memorial Day weekend will take up to 510 lives, the National Safety Council has predicted.

Of the national total, 22 lives will be taken in Ohio, according to the state highway safety officials.

The period covered by the estimate will run from 6 p.m. local time Friday, May 28, to midnight Monday, May 31.

Ruby . . .

Melvin Belli and Phil Burleson. "I'd have done better if I'd thrown myself at the mercy of the court," he said. Twice he declared, "I don't want you as my attorney, Mr. Tonahill."

Ruby began his statement saying: "I've been very patient while every one's classified me as an insane person."

Ruby and his family had sought to remove Tonahill as his attorney and replace him with a group of attorneys they had selected. Tonahill contended he had a valid contract with Ruby. He said the condemned man signed it while he was sane and that he is now insane and incompetent to decide who his counsel will be.

"I'm responsible for terrible things — this is the part you think I'm insane about, but I'm not," Ruby said.

Tonahill said there is no appeal of Judge Holland's decision, but that he would continue to work on Ruby's appeal before the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals where he and Burleson are recognized as Ruby's attorneys of record.

Judge Holland said a hearing would be held soon, perhaps next week, to determine if Judge Joe Brown, who presided at the Ruby murder trial, should be disqualified for the sanity hearing.

Testimony Monday was peppered with charges that lawyers sought to exploit Ruby for profit.

Earl Ruby of Southfield, Mich., a brother, said he lost confidence in Belli and Tonahill "when I learned they were making a movie during the trial."

Ruby's roster of lawyers now consists of William Kunstler of New York and Sam Houston Clinton Jr. of Austin, both American Civil Liberties Union attorneys; Elmer Gertz of Chicago; Sol Dann of Detroit, and Burleson, who apparently has been approved by the Ruby family.

Injunction Suit Filed

Several Pickaway Twp. residents have filed a lawsuit in Common Pleas Court asking for an injunction against other property owners charged with violating construction restrictions.

Floyd and Dorothy Arledge, Route 4, are defendants of the suit filed by Kester L. and Duhese L. McCain, Raymond L. Moats and Robert and Jean D. Mills.

The plaintiffs allege that the Arledges are in violation of restrictions set down for the subdivision. The alleged violation concerns the construction of a concrete block garage. Properties involved are located in the Kedubharyon Subdivision in Pickaway Twp.

According to the petition, the subdivision was established for one-dwelling residences only with a minimum cost of $14,000.

Allan Berger, local attorney, represents the plaintiffs in the matter.

Solons OK Road Aid in Saltcreek

A motion to provide financial assistance for road improvements in Saltcreek Twp. was approved yesterday by the County Board of Commissioners.

The motion, offered by Commissioner Charles Morris Jr., call for $100 per mile for the 39 miles of road in the township. All three solons cast affirmative votes on the proposal.

The decision culminates a lengthy series of deliberations between the Commission and the Saltcreek Trustees who requested the aid. Other townships have also asked for similar assistance. There was no immediate indication of how future requests will be handled.

According to the approved motion, the money will come from the county auto license and gasoline tax fund. It will be payable to the trustees by voucher.

THE Saltcreek solons based their request on grounds that the township has a comparative low evaluation, yet must maintain a considerable mileage of roads.

They pointed out to the Commission that almost all of the township's current appropriations would have to be consumed if decent road and bridge maintenance were to be performed this year. They listed their total budget at $24,500. They said more than $20,000 would be required for proper road work.

In a further breakdown of their financial picture, the trustees said an adequate program would mean expenditures of $3,000 for oil and primer in front of houses, $9,000 for sealing 8 1/2 miles of road, $2,500 for gravel, $1,000 for patching paved roads and $5,000 for road maintenance labor.

Making the request before the Commission were Trustees Donald Strous, Carl Anderson and Fred DeLong.

In other business, the Commission was notified of an opinion from Attorney-General William B. Saxbe concerning the county's payment for damages on the grounds of "moral obligation." The opinion was requested by the county in relation to alleged damages inflicted here by the erection of a bridge in the vicinity of the Arthur Sark property.

According to the attorney general's opinion, there is no statutory authority for a board of county commissioners to expend funds in payment of a moral obligation arising when a bridge is erected and damage to private property results. He also commented on the absence of legal liability in cases where property owners grant the county perpetual easements for highway purposes.

THE Commission reported that only one bid calling for improvements at the County Jail was received prior to yesterday's deadline. The offer was made by the local J. Boyd Stout Co.

According to the solons, the proposal is still under study.

Group Formed To Map Plans For School Aid

George D. McDowell, Pickaway County superintendent of schools, was elected to serve as chairman of the county committee on matters dealing with the Elementary and Secondary Education Act. of 1965.

The act, which has earmarked $184,644 for expenditures in Pickaway County, is a part of the federal Economic Opportunity Program.

Distribution to the schools is based on a figure provided by the United States census bureau on families with less than $2,000 in annual income that have school age children, McDowell noted.

Although Congress has passed the act, no funds have yet been appropriated to implement the program according to information received from the State Department of Education.

All the local schools, including St. Joseph Parochial School, will benefit from the funds received.

Sen. Lausche Favors Reorganization Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio's senior Sen. Frank J. Lausche voted with the majority both times Monday as the Senate upheld President Johnson's plan for reorganization of the Customs Bureau and defeated an amendment to rewrite key sections of the voting rights bill.

Sen. Stephen M. Young, Ohio's other senator, was not recorded in either vote.

Vote Right Bill

said, "I don't think I could even get a denunciation of the Crucifixion into the bill."

When Johnson called for legislation March 15, he asked Congress to work nights and weekends to pass the bill. That has not happened.

The measure would automatically suspend state literacy tests and authorize federal registration of voters in five Southern states and part of two others. It does not name the states, but would impose the provisions in states or counties which used the tests and where voter turnout dipped below 50 per cent of the adult population in November's balloting.

The states that would be wholly affected are Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, South Carolina and Georgia. Those partly affected are North Carolina and Virginia.

Republican critics of the bill failed Monday in a bid to supplant it with a measure that would authorize federal registration in any county where 25 people showed they had been kept from the polls because of race or color.

That proposal was turned down, 49 to 29.

spokesman in Da Nang had given such information. The Saigon story, however, was that the Da Nang spokesman "jumped to the conclusion."

MIGs have figured in three incidents north of the border. The Soviet-designed fighters shot down two supersonic F105 fighter-bombers from American squadrons that were bombing a bridge 65 miles south of Hanoi April 4. But American and Vietnamese fliers have spotted no hostile aircraft in recent weeks.

The attacks were under way again when the South Vietnamese outpost was hit.

A total of 40 U.S. planes had been engaged at that point in raids on targets in Communist North Viet Nam. The most spectacular was the blasting of a petroleum storage area near Vinh, 140 miles south of Hanoi by 12 U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs.

Military spokesmen said the raiders dropped 24 tons of 750-pound bombs. Pilots reported secondary explosions aground said they left the area engulfed in flames and smoke.

The spokesman said all these and the other planes returned safely.

3 Youths Enter 'Haunted House'

Three juveniles who broke into a vacant house on the Kingston Pike last night were apprehended as they left the property.

Hoyt Timmons, Route 1, discovered the youths on the property, notified Pickaway County Sheriff Dwight Radcliff, and detained the boys until he arrived.

Sheriff Radcliff said the youths claimed they were told the empty tenant house was haunted and entered the house out of curiosity.

The sheriff noted that Timmons indicated he would file trespassing charges against the trio.

Presbyterians Attacking Sociological Problems

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — United Presbyterians widened their attack on sociological problems today after pushing aside criticism against the church for past actions in such matters.

A plea to enlarge the 3 1/2-million-member denomination's ministry outside the church came as the 177th General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. moved into its sixth day of weeklong sessions.

A committee of 100 placed a proposal before the church's governing body calling for "bold and creative new forms of ministry."

The Rev. John W. Meister, of Fort Wayne, Ind., told newsmen the proposal was a challenge to each of the denomination's 9,100 churches "to renew and extend the church's ministry." He said each presbytery and church can chart its own course.

Tied to the emphasis on problems outside the church is the assembly's coming test of a new confession of faith which, some observers said, would indicate doctrinal backing of sociological projects already practiced by the church.

A vote on the historic confession was scheduled tonight. In overwhelming votes Monday, the assembly's 833 delegates shouted down a proposal to quit the National Council of Churches and brushed aside petitions on sexual morality.

The Birmingham, Ala., Presbytery had asked the church to withdraw from the council and disassociate itself from demonstrations and "freedom marches" in support of the civil rights movement.

The assembly pushed away the resolutions on sexual morality by approving, instead, a brief motion saying the church "does indeed reaffirm its adherence to our historic moral standards."

Ruby . . .

Melvin Belli and Phil Bursleson. "I'd have done better if I'd thrown myself at the mercy of the court," he said. Twice he declared, "I don't want you as my attorney, Mr. Tonahill."

Ruby began his statement saying: "I've been very patient while every one's classified me as an insane person."

Ruby and his family had sought to remove Tonahill as his attorney and replace him with a group of attorneys they had selected. Tonahill contended he had a valid contract with Ruby. He said the condemned man signed it while he was sane and that he is now insane and incompetent to decide who his counsel will be.

"I'm responsible for terrible things — this is the part you think I'm insane about, but I'm not," Ruby said.

Tonahill said there is no appeal of Judge Holland's decision, but that he would continue to work on Ruby's appeal before the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals where he and Bursleson are recognized as Ruby's attorneys of record.

Judge Holland said a hearing would be held soon, perhaps next week, to determine if Judge Joe Brown, who presided at the Ruby murder trial, should be disqualified for the sanity hearing.

Testimony Monday was peppered with charges that lawyers sought to exploit Ruby for profit.

Earl Ruby of Southfield, Mich., a brother, said he lost confidence in Belli and Tonahill "when I learned they were making a movie during the trial."

Ruby's roster of lawyers now consists of William Kunstler of New York and Sam Houston Clinton Jr. of Austin, both American Civil Liberties Union attorneys; Elmer Gertz of Chicago; Sol Dann of Detroit; and Bursleson, who apparently has been approved by the Ruby family.

Injunction Suit Filed

Several Pickaway Twp. residents have filed a lawsuit in Common Pleas Court asking for an injunction against other property owners charged with violating construction restrictions.

Floyd and Dorothy Arledge, Route 4, are defendants of the suit filed by Kester L. and Duh-nese L. McCain, Raymond L. Moats and Robert and Jean D. Mills.

The plaintiffs allege that the Arledges are in violation of restrictions set down for the subdivision. The alleged violation concerns the construction of a concrete block garage. Properties involved are located in the Keduhbaryon Subdivision in Pickaway Twp.

According to the petition, the subdivision was established for one-dwelling residences only with a minimum cost of $14,000.

Allan Berger, local attorney, represents the plaintiffs in the matter.

Solons OK Road Aid in Saltcreek

A motion to provide financial assistance for road improvements in Saltcreek Twp. was approved yesterday by the County Board of Commissioners.

The motion, offered by Commissioner Charles Morris Jr., call for $100 per mile for the 39 miles of road in the township. All three solons cast affirmative votes on the proposal.

The decision culminates a lengthy series of deliberations between the Commission and the Saltcreek Trustees who requested the aid. Other townships have also asked for similar assistance. There was no immediate indication of how future requests will be handled.

According to the approved motion, the money will come from the county auto license and gasoline tax fund. It will be payable to the trustees by voucher.

THE Commission reported that only one bid calling for improvements at the County Jail was received prior to yesterday's deadline. The offer was made by the local J. Boyd Stout Co.

According to the solons, the proposal is still under study.

Group Formed To Map Plans For School Aid

George D. McDowell, Pickaway County superintendent of schools, was elected to serve as chairman of the county committee on matters dealing with the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, of 1965.

The act, which has earmarked $184,644 for expenditures in Pickaway County, is a part of the federal Economic Opportunity Program.

Distribution to the schools is based on a figure provided by the United States census bureau on families with less than $2,000 in annual income that have school age children, McDowell noted.

Although Congress has passed the act, no funds have yet been appropriated to implement the program according to information received from the State Department of Education.

All the local schools, including St. Joseph Parochial School, will benefit from the funds received.

Sen. Lausche Favors Reorganization Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio's senior Sen. Frank J. Lausche voted with the majority both times Monday as the Senate upheld President Johnson's plan for reorganization of the Customs Bureau and defeated an amendment to rewrite key sections of the voting rights bill.

Sen. Stephen M. Young, Ohio's other senator, was not recorded in either vote.

Vote Right Bill

said, "I don't think I could even get a denunciation of the Crucifixion into the bill."

When Johnson called for legislation March 15, he asked Congress to work nights and weekends to pass the bill. That has not happened.

The measure would automatically suspend state literacy tests and authorize federal registration of voters in five Southern states and part of two others. It does not name the states, but would impose the provisions in states or counties which used the tests and where voter turnout dipped below 50 per cent of the adult population in November's balloting.

The states that would be wholly affected are Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, South Carolina and Georgia. Those partly affected are North Carolina and Virginia.

Republican critics of the bill failed Monday in a bid to supplant it with a measure that would authorize federal registration in any county where 25 people showed they had been kept from the polls because of race or color.

That proposal was turned down, 49 to 29.

Both MIGs

spokesman in Da Nang had given such information. The Saigon story, however, was that the Da Nang spokesman "jumped to the conclusion."

MIGs have figured in three incidents north of the border. The Soviet-designed fighters shot down two supersonic F105 fighter-bombers from American squadrons that were bombing a bridge 65 miles south of Hanoi April 4. But American and Vietnamese fliers have spotted no hostile aircraft in recent weeks.

The attacks were under way again when the South Vietnamese outpost was hit.

A total of 40 U.S. planes had been engaged at that point in raids on targets in Communist North Viet Nam. The most spectacular was the blasting of a petroleum storage area near Vinh, 140 miles south of Hanoi by 12 U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs.

Military spokesmen said the raiders dropped 24 tons of 750-pound bombs. Pilots reported secondary explosions aground said they left the area engulfed in flames and smoke.

The spokesman said all these and the other planes returned safely.

3 Youths Enter 'Haunted House'

Three juveniles who broke into a vacant house on the Kingston Pike last night were apprehended as they left the property.

Hoyt Timmons, Route 1, discovered the youths on the property, notified Pickaway County Sheriff Dwight Radcliff, and detained the boys until he arrived.

Sheriff Radcliff said the youths claimed they were told the empty tenant house was haunted and entered the house out of curiosity.

The sheriff noted that Timmons indicated he would file trespassing charges against the trio.

Presbyterians Attacking Sociological Problems

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—United Presbyterians widened their attack on sociological problems today after pushing aside criticism against the church for past actions in such matters.

A plea to enlarge the 3 1/2-million-member denomination's ministry outside the church came as the 177th General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. moved into its sixth day of weeklong sessions.

A committee of 100 placed a proposal before the church's governing body calling for "bold and creative new forms of ministry."

The Rev. John W. Meister, of Fort Wayne, Ind., told newsmen the proposal was a challenge to each of the denomination's 9,100 churches "to renew and extend the church's ministry." He said each presbytery and church can chart its own course.

Tied to the emphasis on problems outside the church is the assembly's coming test of a new confession of faith which, some observers said, would indicate doctrinal backing of sociological projects already practiced by the church.

A vote on the historic confession was scheduled tonight.

In overwhelming votes Monday, the assembly's 833 delegates shouted down a proposal to quit the National Council of Churches and brushed aside petitions on sexual morality.

The Birmingham, Ala., Presbytery had asked the church to withdraw from the council and disassociate itself from demonstrations and "freedom marches" in support of the civil rights movement.

The assembly pushed away the resolutions on sexual morality by approving, instead, a brief motion saying the church "does indeed reaffirm its adherence to our historic moral standards."

Assembly Bill Seeks Checkup Of Ohio Buses

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The death of a Hamilton County youngster prompted legislation that probably will come out of the Ohio General Assembly today.

Rep. Gordon M. Scherer, R-Hamilton, introduced the proposal which would require inspection of privately operated school buses and display of a 12-inch decal on sides of buses instead of on the windshield.

Scherer offered the bill, already approved by the house, after an uninspected bus struck and killed a child in suburban Cincinnati on Feb. 16. The bus driver had no license.

Favorable action today in the Senate would send the measure to the desk of the governor.

Measures affecting the dairy industry, terms of mayors, driver's licenses, and game pachers cleared obstacles Monday night.

The House passed 96-16 and sent to the Senate a bill establishing uniform regulation and inspection of Ohio's milk processors, producers, and haulers.

Rep. Herman K. Ankeney, R-Greene, said the proposal is designed to protect the public and also that it has the backing of dairymen.

He explained that it affects only dealers in Grade A milk and not manufactured milk or products such as frozen deserts.

Under the bill, a state milk sanitation board would be created to issue annual $5 licenses and oversee inspections by local health boards.

The House completed legislative action on a measure increasing the terms of mayors in non-chartered cities and villages from two to four years. Sen. Jim Thorpe, R-Stark, sponsored the Senate-passed bill.

"Presently, a newly elected mayor is in office only 13 months before he must file for re-election," Thorpe said.

Also approved in the House was a bill by Rep. Robert Rodger, D-Montgomery, denying driver's licenses to new Ohio residents whose licenses were revoked or suspended in their prior home state. The bill allows exceptions under certain conditions.

The Senate voted 28-0 to increase the penalty for illegal taking of deer which, Sen. Ed Garrigan, R-Summit, said, "is now the same as that for illegally killing a rabbit."

The measure would increase from $200 to $500 the maximum fine that could be imposed and also permit courts to substitute for the fine a 30-day jail sentence.

Also approved by the Senate were measures giving prisoners credit for time served in county jails prior to their commitment and allowing the use of data processing equipment for the selection of jurors.

Business Briefs

Extensive remodeling of the Mader Funeral Home, 123 E. Mound St., is underway.

The remodeling program is expected to require two months. It will consist of a complete redecoration program plus the addition of 750 square feet of floor space to existing facilities.

L. S. Mader, owner, emphasized in announcing the remodeling project that service would continue as usual to Circleville-area families.

Mader said: "Our funeral home is being expanded and beautified to keep up with the growing needs of families in this vicinity who require a funeral director's services. Due to the skill of the architect and builders, there will be little interference with present services, and service will be available at any hour of the day or night.

"This is another step," Mader said, "in a continuing program of improvements. The funeral home, in its 52nd year of operation, has been at its present location since 1935.

The Mader Funeral Home is Circleville's member of the Order of the Golden Rule, an international affiliation of dedicated funeral directors who pledge to offer modern, complete facilities, equipment and service at prices all families can afford.

Winners of awards presented during an open house observance at the Bargain Barn, 135 W. High St., were announced today.

According to owner James Leist the winners are: Mrs. Gerald Rush of 224 Mingo St., storm door; William Philpott of 363 Logan St., coffee table; Mrs. Paul Porter of Route 1, transistor radio; Bart Johnson of 345 E. High St. and Albert Betts of 213 Third Ave., light fixtures; Bertha Tomlinson of Route 1, Roscoe Sanders of 360 Brown St., Donald Cottrill of 315 W. Ohio St. and Gene Pentecost of 124 Pontious Lane, door grills.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman didn't, President Eisenhower did and President Johnson did and didn't.

That's the mixed-up picture of how presidents down through American history used the armed forces, sometimes with and sometimes without congressional approval, even when it meant war.

The Constitution gives Congress alone the power to declare war but it says the president is commander in chief of Army and Navy. It neglects to say whether he needs a go-ahead from Congress before using them.

So the presidents, depending on the man and the circumstances, have suited themselves.

Presidents Jefferson, McKinley and Wilson are three examples of men who didn't ask the blessing of Congress when they thought it necessary to act.

Jefferson sent the Navy into action in the undeclared war against the Barbary pirates in 1801.

In 1900, McKinley sent 2,500 U.S. troops, along with about 16,000 from European countries, into China against fanatical Chinese, principally a group called the "Boxers," who were slaughtering foreigners and wanted to drive out the rest.

Wilson in 1914 sent the armed forces to capture Vera Cruz in Mexico.

When the North Korean Communists attacked South Korea in 1950, Truman sent in the armed forces without ever asking or getting specific congressional approval. Yet, this was a real war.

Actually, half an hour before he announced his action he called congressional leaders to the White House, told them the decision he had made and got their hearty endorsement.

For all practical purposes Congress did give him official approval for the war in the various measures it voted, like money, extending the draft and so on.

Nevertheless, as the fighting went on and the 1952 presidential campaign drew near, Republicans called it "Truman's war," a charge he might have avoided if he had pinned Congress down to specific approval.

Eisenhower, not faced with the same kind of emergency as Truman, made use of the time to get ready and in January 1955, asked and got from Congress approved for whatever action he might take to defend Formosa from Red Chinese attack.

But in 1957 he was looking ahead a year when he asked Congress for authority to use the armed forces to protect the Middle East from Communist aggression.

(Like other presidents before him Eisenhower could have used the forces when the time came, without this authorization, but by doing it this way he had a national endorsement for what might do later.)

It took Eisenhower three months to get approval from both houses of Congress but, once he had it, it became known as the Eisenhower "doctrine" although he didn't have to use it until 1958.

Then, when Lebanon, friendly to the West, seemed in danger from communism or Egypt, Eisenhower sent the fleet there and put troops ashore.

Johnson sought congressional endorsement for the action he has taken in Viet Nam but not in the Dominican Republic.

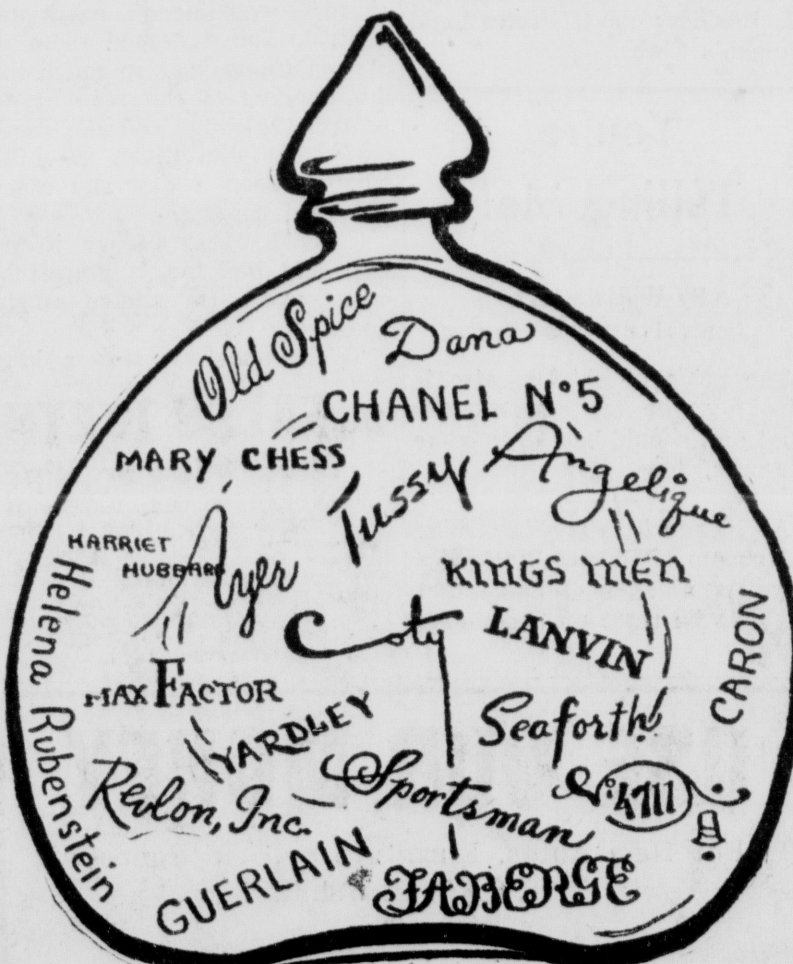

Last August, when North Vietnamese PT boats attacked U.S. destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin, he asked and got from Congress a blank check to do what he thought necessary. At that time he didn't do much.

He ordered the bombing of some North Vietnamese naval bases. But he used the blank check in full when Viet Cong guerrillas in South Viet Nam last February blasted a U.S. air base with mortar fire.

Johnson ordered the bombing of North Viet Nam and that has been going on since, with a pause of only six days to see if the Communists wanted to talk peace. When they didn't, the bombing was resumed. Mean while, Johnson sent in Marines. The congressional approval he got beforehand was very broad. It authorized "all necessary measures" to "prevent further aggression."

But when Johnson sent Marines into the Dominican Republic last month — explaining first it was to save American lives and then to stop a Communist takeover — he sought no formal nod from Congress.

He simply called some key members of Congress to the White House to explain his action before announcing it to the nation.

26 Students Rank High on Final Tests

Fifty-five Teays Valley students participated in the final District - State Scholarship Tests given recently at Ohio State University. Of the students who took the tests, 19 placed in the district and seven placed in the state.

Each school was classified according to its enrollment. Division I schools were those with 800 students or more; Division II, 400-799; Division III, 1-399.

Teays Valley was classified in Division II and the district and state rankings which its students earned are for that division.

The student who received a rank in the district were: Lynn Chrismer, 15th, general science; Larry Valentine, 19th, general science; Glenn Flierl, 1st, chemistry; James Ridenour, 15th, chemistry; David Sherertz, 14th, physics; Greg Treckor, 18th, physics; Don Goldhardt, honorable mention, algebra; Robert Frazier, honorable mention, American history; Gloria Kiser, 3rd, social studies; Joyce Miller, 15th, social studies; Mike Kitchen, honorable mention, English 9; Pat Kunke, 9th, English 10; Jim Willis, 18th, English 11; Karen Dum, 5th, English 12; Teresa Smith, 17th, Latin 1; Ed Durham, 6th, Spanish II; Carol Balthaser, 1st, bookkeeping; Rick Brown, 2nd bookkeeping; Sallie Forson, 6th, bookkeeping.

Pathet Lao's Annual Push Still Missing

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — With about two weeks to go before monsoon rains drop the curtain on major military activity in Laos, U.S. and Laotian officials are wondering what happened to the annual Pathet Lao offensive.

The absence of a significant Communist push in Laos so far has puzzled many here. Normally, the Pathet Lao and their North Vietnamese allies unleash attacks just a few weeks before the rainy season to grab some important piece of territory. After the monsoons start it is practically impossible for government forces to mount a counterattack.

Last year, this tactic gained the Communists virtually the entire Plaine des Jarres and bottled up neutralist forces of Gen. Kong Le. He lost almost all of his 40 Soviet-built tanks in the retreat.

Western officials here have speculated that the absence of a Communist spring offensive this year might be attributable to these factors:

1. — The Communists already have secured the territory that is of importance to them now. These are areas adjacent to Communist China, North Viet Nam and South Viet Nam, for the needed corridor to South Viet Nam.

2. — A big offensive would embarrass the Soviet Union, which is cochairman of the Geneva conference, and Poland, which is a member of the three-nation International Control Commission.

3. — The Communists believe in ultimate victory in South Viet Nam and presumably think that when this victory is achieved, Laos will be scooped up automatically.

In addition to these considerations, the U.S. bombing of North Viet Nam and Laotian air force bombings in Laos made a buildup of troops and logistic supply from North Viet Nam extremely difficult.

Actor Shrugs at Money, Prefers London Stage

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Having starred in three major movies, Christopher Plummer is going off to play "Peer Gynt" on the London stage.

"He's out of his mind," agrees the wise crowd in Hollywood. They figure an actor with his sanity would consolidate an ascending career in films.

Plummer's agent received the news more violently.

"The veins distended in his temple" the actor recalled, "he sputtered and turned a shade of puce. He couldn't believe it."

Indeed, why would Plummer play Ibsen for a pittance when star-hungry studios would gladly pay him a six-figure salary to make a film?

"Because I was sitting at the beach feeling as if I were vegetating," he explained. "Peter Coe (the director) dropped in and suggested we do a play in London together I just bought a house there I would like to see, and he has a house in London, too. I had always wanted to do 'Peer Gynt,' so why not now?"

His agent still considers that Plummer is playing fast and loose with his 90 per cent. But that's the way the Canadian-born actor is. He has finally made it in films after two false starts; but he still considers the stage his profession.

This is not an unreasonable stance. He has starred on the New York and London stage to critical acclaim. His interpretation of Shakespearean heroes has been hailed at all three Stratfords — Conn., Ont., on

Grid Preview Slated In Spite of Protests

CINCINNATI (AP) — High schoolers will get their annual "Pigskin Preview" this fall despite the opposition of some officials.

Municipal Judge John W. Keefe Monday described as "deplorable" the decision of school officials to hold the high on the evening of Friday, Sept. 10. Keefe said there were 25 incidents at last year's night-time opener and one high school school football season opener senior was convicted of assault and battery.

Assembly Bill Seeks Checkup Of Ohio Buses

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The death of a Hamilton County youngster prompted legislation that probably will come out of the Ohio General Assembly today.

Rep. Gordon M. Scherer, R-Hamilton, introduced the proposal which would require inspection of privately operated school buses and display of a 12-inch decal on sides of buses instead of on the windshield.

Scherer offered the bill, already approved by the house, after an unexpected bus struck and killed a child in suburban Cincinnati on Feb. 16. The bus driver had no license.

Favorable action today in the Senate would send the measure to the desk of the governor.

Measures affecting the dairy industry, terms of mayors, driver's licenses, and game pachers cleared obstacles Monday night.

The House passed 96-16 and sent to the Senate a bill establishing uniform regulation and inspection of Ohio's milk processors, producers, and haulers. Rep. Herman K. Ankney, R-Greene, said the proposal is designed to protect the public and also that it has the backing of dairymen.

He explained that it affects only dealers in Grade A milk and not manufactured milk or products such as frozen deserts. Under the bill, a state milk sanitation board would be created to issue annual $5 licenses and oversee inspections by local health boards.

The House completed legislative action on a measure increasing the terms of mayors in non-chartered cities and villages from two to four years. Sen. Jim Thorpe, R-Stark, sponsored the Senate-passed bill.

"Presently, a newly elected mayor is in office only 13 months before he must file for re-election," Thorpe said.

Also approved in the House was a bill by Rep. Robert Rodger, D-Montgomery, denying driver's licenses to new Ohio residents whose licenses were revoked or suspended in their prior home state. The bill allows exceptions under certain conditions.

The Senate voted 28-0 to increase the penalty for illegal taking of deer which, Sen. Ed Garrigan, R-Summit, said, "is now the same as that for illegally killing a rabbit."

The measure would increase from $200 to $500 the maximum fine that could be imposed and also permit courts to substitute for the fine a 30-day jail sentence.

Also approved by the Senate were measures giving prisoners credit for time served in county jails prior to their commitment and allowing the use of data processing equipment for the selection of jurors.

Extensive remodeling of the Mader Funeral Home, 123 E. Mound St., is underway.

The remodeling program is expected to require two months. It will consist of a complete redecoration program plus the addition of 750 square feet of floor space to existing facilities.

L. S. Mader, owner, emphasized in announcing the remodeling project that service would continue as usual to Circleville-area families.

Mader said: "Our funeral home is being expanded and beautified to keep up with the growing needs of families in this vicinity who require a funeral director's services. Due to the skill of the architect and builders, there will be little interference with present services, and service will be available at any hour of the day or night."

"This is another step," Mader said, "in a continuing program of improvements. The funeral home, in its 52nd year of operation, has been at its present location since 1935."

The Mader Funeral Home is Circleville's member of the Order of the Golden Rule, an international affiliation of dedicated funeral directors who pledge to offer modern, complete facilities, equipment and service at prices all families can afford.

Winners of awards presented during an open house observance at the Bargain Barn, 135 W. High St., were announced today.

According to owner James Leist the winners are: Mrs. Gerald Rush of 224 Mingo St., storm door; William Philpott of 363 Logan St., coffee table; Mrs. Paul Porter of Route 1, transistor radio; Bart Johnson of 345 E. High St. and Albert Betts of 213 Third Ave., light fixtures; Bertha Tomlinson of Route 1, Roscoe Sanders of 360 Brown St., Donald Cottrill of 315 W. Ohio St. and Gene Pentecost of 124 Pontious Lane, door grills.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman didn't, President Eisenhower did and President Johnson did and didn't.

That's the mixed-up picture of how presidents down through American history used the armed forces, sometimes with and sometimes without congressional approval, even when it meant war.

The Constitution gives Congress alone the power to declare war but it says the president is commander in chief of Army and Navy. It neglects to say whether he needs a go-ahead from Congress before using them.

So the presidents, depending on the man and the circumstances, have suited themselves.

Presidents Jefferson, McKinley and Wilson are three examples of men who didn't ask the blessing of Congress when they thought it necessary to act.

Jefferson sent the Navy into action in the undeclared war against the Barbary pirates in 1801.

In 1900, McKinley sent 2,500 U.S. troops, along with about 16,000 from European countries, into China against fanatical Chinese, principally a group called the 'Boxers,' who were slaughtering foreigners and wanted to drive out the rest.

Wilson in 1914 sent the armed forces to capture Vera Cruz in Mexico.

When the North Korean Communists attacked South Korea in 1950, Truman sent in the armed forces without ever asking or getting specific congressional approval. Yet, this was a real war.

Actually, half an hour before he announced his action he called congressional leaders to the White House, told them the decision he had made and got their hearty endorsement.

For all practical purposes Congress did give him official approval for the war in the various measures it voted, like money, extending the draft and so on.

Nevertheless, as the fighting went on and the 1952 presidential campaign drew near, Republicans called it "Truman's war," a charge he might have avoided if he had pinned Congress down to specific approval.

Eisenhower, not faced with the same kind of emergency as Truman, made use of the time to get ready and in January 1955, asked and got from Congress approved for whatever action he might take to defend Formosa from Red Chinese attack.

Tshombe Shows Way

Have you noticed how quiet the let's-surrender - now - before - it's - too - late clique has become over events in the Congo? The hand-wringing pessimists who only a few months ago were ready to throw in the towel and proffered much advice to Moise Tshombe, all of which had the same surrender theme, have crawled back into their respective holes.

The reason, of course, is that Tshombe is made of much sterner stuff than the peanut gallery advisers realized. He saw the rebel forces which threatened the stability of the Congo for what they were — a mob of poorly trained guerrillas, cannon fodder for communist revolutionaries from Moscow and Peking.

With his very effective white mercenaries, Tshombe has defeated the rebel armies so decisively that their remnants have retreated to Cairo, where they now are seeking, through emissaries to Leopoldville, a peaceful settlement with the Congolese premier. It may be generations before the Con-

See a yellow car tag in Rome, Italy, and you see a car whose woman driver is in a contest to name the safest driver. Twenty thousand women are competing, and they are very serious about the contest.

Entrants are rated by police and auto club officials every time they see a yellow-tag car in operation on the city streets.

This is a great idea to import to the United States. But instead of limiting it to women drivers, why not make it

Break for Readers

It is heartening to know that the proven system of phonetic reading is replacing the "look-say" method in many public schools. It is more encouraging to learn that an improvement has been added to help youngsters over the hardest part of phonics.

In this puzzling English language the biggest difficulty of beginning readers using the phonic system has been to know which sound to give to vowels in their different combinations with consonants. In one usage "a" may sound like "ay"; the next time it may be "ah" or even "a-a-a-h."

It's confusing, and in the past about all the teacher could tell the pupil was that he must memorize the sound that goes with the word.

Now a new way is undergoing experi-

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market has been indulging in what looks like an attack of spring fever. And the question is whether that's all it is, or whether an authentic period of caution has set in for stock traders.

After climbing to highs in the first two weeks of May, stock prices slid in the third week,

With trading slackening off as the sun warmed up.

Brokers are watching to see if the market stays lackadaisical until the long Memorial Day weekend. For many this will mark the start of a new season, whatever the solar time table may say.

Cautionary signs are clearly visible.

The international news has been disturbing on several fronts. Increased fighting in Viet Nam and the Dominican revolt on this nation's doorsteps has led many to wonder what may be ahead: more orders for defense firms? Less emphasis on domestic programs?

Tin, copper and other commodities are involved in political and labor troubles abroad. Steel and aluminum are tangled in labor-management hard bargaining at home, with the results carrying the possibility of effects well-beyond the field of metals.

The big boost in auto sales and in buying of steel in the first quarter has aided the economy to set highs. And corporation profits have taken a big jump as a result. So have personal incomes.

Much of the drop in the third week of May could have been traced to disappointment that stocks weren't split, dividends weren't raised, or at least not as high as rumored, that profits of some firm looked good but not brilliant.

The market as a whole has had a long uphill climb. Spring fever could be just a natural reaction.

From a 1962 low of 535.76, the Dow-Jones industrial average rose to a record 939.62 May 14. By Friday May 21 it had slipped to 922.01. This index of 30 leading stocks, heavily weighted to give effect to the many splits and other corporate changes over the years, is only an indicator at best of the course of the general market, but it is closely followed by the public.

The climb of 403.86 points from the low point after the 1962 market crash is a whooper. The slip of 17.61 points in the third week of May is hardly catastrophic.

A TRAVELING opera troupe, performing "Faust" for a rustic audience, came a cropper when the singer essaying the lead (he weighed about 280 pounds) got stuck in a trapdoor supposedly leading to the nether regions. The music stopped while he tried desperately to wriggle free. Suddenly from the gallery came the joyous cry, "Thank God! Hell is full!"

J. C. Furnas, in his new book, "The Life and Times of The Late Demon Rum," reveals that the kindly, genteel Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was sold to a fare-thee-well years ago to sober citizens to "revive drooping spirits and plant on pale cheeks the fresh roses of life's spring" had in fact "two thirds of the kick of a Manhattan cocktail"—unsuspected but duly appreciated by its abstemious consumers.

We are a large family living in a rural area. With six young children, accidents and injuries seem to be a daily occurrence. Are there any general rules for emergencies before the doctor can arrive to our isolated home?

Mrs. R.R.S., Arizona

Dear Mrs. S.: The first rule of safety is, of course, prevention. Young, active, growing children must be taught the responsibility of safety when playing in and outside of the home.

The severity of sprains and the possibility of fractures can be determined only by the doctor. Watchful waiting is not wise. Poisoning within the home can be prevented by keeping all drugs, pesticides, poisons and household chemicals far from the reach of the curious child. Curiosity and tasting are a familiar combination in children. If a poison is accidentally swallowed a safe rule is to induce vomiting by gently tickling the back of the throat with a finger or the blunt handle of a spoon. Then force the child or adult to drink a large quantity of milk or even plain water. If the skin has been in contact with an irritating chemical it should be drenched with water immediately. A constant stream of water, even while the clothing is being removed, can reduce the degree of skin injury.

Burns are always painful. The pain can be relieved by keeping the injured part under running cold water. Do not immediately cover burns with ointments, creams and greases. They become a burden to remove when your physician arrives.

The emergency care of all wounds is to control bleeding and prevent infection and contamination of the wound. Soap and water is an excellent way to clean a simple wound. Iodine that has been lying unused for a long time is often too concentrated, and may further injure the tissue.

Most minor bleeding can be controlled by pressure directly over the site of bleeding. First cover it with clean gauze or handkerchief.

Splinters are a mother's surgical specialty. First, clean the wound with soap and water. Then sterilize a needle by passing it through a flame. After it cools, prick the skin the entire length of the splinter. Remove the splinter gently with tweezers.

Animal bites must be quickly cleaned with soap, mild detergent or plain salt water. The animal should be captured for examination by health authorities for the possibility of rabies infection.

A family first-aid kit can be kept separate from the overburdened medical cabinet. It should contain sterile gauze pads, a roll of adhesive, absorbent cotton, adhesive strips, bandages, scissors, tweezers, and hydrogen peroxide. Kits can also become unnecessarily unwieldy.

Not every situation can be anticipated in the daily activity of a large family, yet a planned examination with the children of the danger spots in the home the basement and the garden and probably prevent many of the home accidents that unnecessarily plague families.

'Leverage' Group

The Conservative Party of New York, a "leverage" group dedicated to keeping the Republican Party from falling into Left-wing hands, polled 122,000 votes last fall within the environs of New York City for its Senatorial candidate, Henry Paolucci. These votes could be crucial in the forthcoming contest for the mayor's job between Liberal Republican John Lindsay and Liberal Democrat Bob Wagner. The disposition of the 122,000 votes, assuming that the Conservative Party can continue to control them, has been the subject of a truly agonizing appraisal during the past few days in conservative circles.

When the Lindsay candidacy was first announced, one element in the New York City Conservative Party hierarchy argued that it would be foolish to put a third candidate in the field against Lindsay and Wagner. The rationale behind this attitude was that a contest for mayor involved housekeeping issues, not ideological considerations of Right versus Left. A slightly Machiavellian twist on this thinking had it that it might be a good thing from the conservative standpoint to get John Lindsay out of the House of Representatives in Washington, where he can do positive harm by voting with the Left on foreign policy and on high domestic spending, and into a city hall job that could engage his energies in such non-partisan matters as making a great metropolis both clean and safe for its inhabitants.

This point of view, however, seems to have been rejected by the ruling element among the Conservatives. They frankly fear that the Liberal Republicans are mainly interested in the New York City Hall as a launching pad for State and national victories. As one important Conservative leader put it, "If Lindsay should run well, it would give great leverage to the Kuchel-Scott type of Republicanism. We've got to consider that there's more than New York City at stake here. There's Albany and the Republican 1968 convention to think about."

Even so, the Conservative Party, while it was veering toward putting up a candidate against Lindsay and Wagner, held back for a period. But when John Lindsay indicated that he would put a review board over the New York City police, this did it. Unless Lindsay changes his mind, the odds at this moment are that the Conservative Party will name its own candidate for mayor to take on both Lindsay and Wagner. The Conservatives think that "second - guessing" the police is an invitation to anarchy.

The probability of a conservative candidacy may seem of little importance to many, but in a boiling contest 122,000 votes added to or subtracted from the Lindsay total could change the political future of the nation. It is not merely Lindsay's reputation that will be riding on the result of this fall. This is a fish-or-cut bait proposition for Republican Senator Jacob Javits as well. For Javits as Lindsay's political manager and mentor, is putting his own great prestige as a New York City vote - getter on the line. With his own popularity among liberals, and his strong, roots among those who grew up on the old East Side, Javits has been able to win majority support for himself inside what is normally a heavily Democratic city. But when he pushed Ken Keating for the U.S. Senate against Bobby Kennedy last fall, he couldn't quite swing enough votes in the city to carry the day for his man. His excuse was that the Johnson coat-tails and the Kennedy name were insuperable obstacles, and that, all things considered, Ken Keating did very well to come as close to beating Kennedy as he did.

Next November, however, there can be no excuses. If Javits can corral the last measure of votes necessary to put Lindsay over as mayor, it would, even as the Conservative Party fears, have tremendous national significance. Javits would at once become a prime contender for the Vice Presidency. Lindsay could move on to Albany as governor, or to Washington as Senator. But if Lindsay takes a beating, both he and Javits will be in trouble.

This is why the action of a "leverage" party such as the one that is run by the Conservatives is important. As for the Liberal Party, another "leverage" group, it has had its share of Wagner patronage over the years. Could it possibly shift to Lindsay? One doubts it. And we are left with a piquant situation, with Wagner presumably benefiting from the actions of two splinter parties that were originally designed to negate each other.

A Lonely Vigil on Hill 327

HILL 327, South Viet Nam (AP) — They keep a lonely vigil on a hot and dusty hill for a meeting with the enemy that may never come.

They are the four officers and 87 enlisted men of a U.S.

Paul Walters, CHS athlete, was elected honorary captain of the 1939-1940 Tiger basketball team.

The men have great confidence in their weapon. In training for their present mission they found the Hawks effective in bringing down drone aircraft used as targets at their base on Okinawa.

"They'll knock the hell out of anything that can be sent against us over here," said the battery commander, Capt. Everett Cowley, 33, Quincy, Mass.

The battery, whose theme song is "On Top of Old Dusty," is emplaced on the flat peak of one of the highest hills in the Da Nang area. The road up it is one long river of hubcap-deep dust.

It isn't that way all year round, however. When the rainy season starts the road will become a river of mud.

The view from the top of Hill 327, where the long slender Hawk missiles nest in their launchers like poised hornets, is hauntingly beautiful. In one direction stretches the watery waste of the South China Sea over which white cloud towers float in slow and timeless majesty. Between the sea and the base of the hill lie the city of Da Nang and its vital air base.

In the other direction lie a valley and rugged hills from whose green hell Marine patrols are tortuously and painstakingly flushing the tenacious Viet Cong. The loveliness of the hills hides the menace of the ambushing enemy.

The battery's position conceivably is vulnerable to mortar attack. It is guarded by sandbags and barbed wire and a company of Marine infantrymen. But the missilemen themselves also pull sentry duty, man outpost holes, and pile up more sandbag barricades.

The heart of the battery is its small, well-hidden command central. The darkened room is air-conditioned not so much for the comfort of the men as to protect the radar and electronic equipment with which the missilemen keep a day and night watch of the sky.

I asked Capt. Cowley if his men had had many interesting experiences. He smiled wryly and said,

Tshombe Shows Way

Have you noticed how quiet the let's-surrender - now - before - it's - too - late cliché has become over events in the Congo? The hand-wringing pessimists who only a few months ago were ready to throw in the towel and proffered much advice to Moise Tshombe, all of which had the same surrender theme, have crawled back into their respective holes.

The reason, of course, is that Tshombe is made of much sterner stuff than the peanut gallery advisers realized. He saw the rebel forces which threatened the stability of the Congo for what they were — a mob of poorly trained guerrillas, cannon fodder for communist revolutionaries from Moscow and Peking.

With his very effective white mercenaries, Tshombe has defeated the rebel armies so decisively that their remnants have retreated to Cairo, where they now are seeking, through emissaries to Leopoldville, a peaceful settlement with the Congolese premier.

It may be generations before the Congo will become a serene country without threat from internal uprisings or external subversion, but the current situation is a great improvement over the chaotic condition which existed before, during and immediately after the United Nations forces went into the country.

But the point Moise Tshombe and his Leopoldville government have impressed on the West, and particularly those who have succumbed to the cold war jitters to the extent they are ready to surrender at the slightest prospect of armed conflict, is that determination and strong leadership can defeat communist-backed revolutionaries.

Make no mistake about the efforts of the communist world, particularly Peking, to capture the Congo. It would have been a rich prize, both in mineral resources and geographic political effects.

But perseverance, a well-trained military resistance and a deaf ear to instant appeasement saved the Congo. This is the formula needed everywhere communism raises its slimy head.

Yellow Tag Contest

See a yellow car tag in Rome, Italy, and you see a car whose woman driver is in a contest to name the safest driver. Twenty thousand women are competing, and they are very serious about the contest.

Entrants are rated by police and auto club officials every time they see a yellow-tag car in operation on the city streets.

This is a great idea to import to the United States. But instead of limiting it to women drivers, why not make it open to both men and women?

With the American competitive spirit and its paradox, an eagerness to mimic others, a whole epidemic of safe driving could sweep the country under the inspiration of a safe driving contest.

It would be fine, for a change, to put the emphasis on the positive in efforts to improve traffic safety. But cynics still believe also in accentuating the negative-more restrictive drivers' licensing and better enforcement of traffic laws.

Break for Readers

It is heartening to know that the proven system of phonetic reading is replacing the "look-say" method in many public schools. It is more encouraging to learn that an improvement has been added to help youngsters over the hardest part of phonics.

In this puzzling English language the biggest difficulty of beginning readers using the phonic system has been to know which sound to give to vowels in their different combinations with consonants. In one usage "a" may sound like "ay"; the next time it may be "ah" or even "a-a-a-h."

It's confusing, and in the past about all the teacher could tell the pupil was that he must memorize the sound that goes with the word.

Now a new way is undergoing experimentation. It is so simple it's a wonder someone didn't think of it decades ago. The trick is to match colors with sounds.

Identical vowel sounds, regardless of which letter they use, will be printed in the same color: the "u" in up, the "o" in done, the "oo" in blood, all will be yellow. The child, it is expected, will quickly learn that yellow sounds like "uh," and that he may pronounce it that way whenever he spies it.

Once he has learned the proper sounds in each word, he will no longer need the colors, and can graduate to black-on-white printing.

In the complex age ahead everyone is going to have to be a good reader. Perhaps this will be the way to produce them.

The Business World

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market has been indulging in what looks like an attack of spring fever. And the question is whether that's all it is, or whether an authentic period of caution has set in for stock traders.

After climbing to highs in the first two weeks of May, stock prices slid in the third week, with trading slackening off as the sun warmed up.

Brokers are watching to see if the market stays lackadaisical until the long Memorial Day weekend. For many this will mark the start of a new season, whatever the solar time table may say.

Cautionary signs are clearly visible.

The international news has been disturbing on several fronts. Increased fighting in Viet Nam and the Dominican revolt on this nation's doorsteps has led many to wonder what may be ahead: more orders for defense firms? Less emphasis on domestic programs?

Tin, copper and other commodities are involved in political and labor troubles abroad. Steel and aluminum are tangled in labor-management hard bargaining at home, with the results carrying the possibility of effects well-beyond the field of metals.

Ohio Colleges Graduate Record Number This Year

The Circleville Herald, Tues. May 25, 1965 5
Circleville, Ohio

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The traditional bustle of cap and gown time is at hand at scores of Ohio's colleges and ahead schools will be turning out what for many will be a record number of graduates.

Modernization and changing of many college procedures, such as trimesters, and autumn and winter commencements for many big campuses, has not taken the luster off the traditional late May and June commencement speakers. Witness the popularity of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., civil rights leader. He's the most in demand among Ohio campuses—he'll speak at three Ohio commencements in June—at Wilberforce University June 9, at Oberlin College June 14, and Antioch College June 19.

And as always, men renounced in religion, industry, business, the arts and sciences will gather additional honors—in the form of honorary degrees presented during the commencement exercises.

The state's biggest campus—Ohio State University, will hold its commencement at 9 a.m. June 11 in the OSU Stadium. A record number of degrees, approximately 3,000 will be conferred. The old June commencement record was set last year when 2,721 received degrees.

President Novice G. Fawcett will address his own students as the principal commencement speaker. Four men will receive honorary degrees. They are George E. Mueller, head of the manned space flight program for NASA and a former OSU professor, honorary science degree; Elliott Nugent, playwright and OSU graduate, Doctor of Letters degree; Thomas F. Patton, Cleveland, president of Republic Steel Corp., Doctor of Laws degree; and Joseph J. Spengler, professor of economics at Duke University and a former OSU student and instructor.

Other Commencements:
Central State College—Commencement Sunday, June 6. Principal speaker, Dr. John W. Davis, president emeritus of West Virginia State University and currently with the legal department of the NAACP national headquarters. Approximately 341 degrees.

Wilberforce University—Commencement at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, June 9. Principal speaker, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., civil rights leader. Approximately 55 degrees.

Antioch College—commencement Saturday, June 19. Principal speaker, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., approximately 300 degrees comprising the largest class in the school's 113-year-old history.

Muskingum College—Commencement at 10 a.m. Monday, June 7, the school's 120th commencement. Principal speaker, H. Bruce Palmer of New York City, president of the National Industrial Conference Board. Approximately 250 degrees.

Marietta College—School's 128th commencement set for Monday, June 7, with the largest class in history, more than 300 students, to get degrees. No principal speaker.

Rio Grande College—school's 89th anniversary commencement at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, May 30. Principal speaker, Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio.

Otterbein College—Commencement Sunday, June 6. Principal speaker, Dr. B. D. Thomas, president of Battelle Memorial Institute, Columbus, who will receive an honorary Doctor of Science degree. Approximately 252 degrees.

Denison University—School's 124th commencement, 9:30 a.m. Monday, June 14. Principal speaker, Dr. Robert A. Charpie, director of technology of Union Carbide Corp., New York City. Approximately 350 degrees.

Wittenberg University—Commencement program Monday, June 7. Principal speaker, Dr. Haroslav Pelikan, professor of ecclesiastical history in the Yale University Divinity School. Largest class in university's history—420 students—to be graduated.

Ohio University—Commencement Sunday, June 6, at 1:15 p.m. Approximately 1,250 students to receive degrees. No principal speaker.

Capital University—School's 104th commencement Monday June 7. Principal speaker, Arthur Crawford, president of Marco Products Co., Columbus, director of electronic research, American Brake Shoe Co. Approximately 300 degrees.

Ohio Wesleyan—Commencement Sunday, June 13. Principal speaker, Dr. Willa B. Playter, 1929 OWU graduate and president of Bennett College, Greensboro, N.C. More than 400 degrees.

Ohio Northern University—Commencement Sunday, June 13. Principal speaker, Dr. F. Bringle McIntosh, retiring as president of university, effective Sept. 1, after 16 years of service. Approximately 275 degrees.

Bluffton College—Commencement at 10 a.m. Monday, June 7. Principal speaker, Dr. James M. Read, president of Wilmington College. Approximately 120 degrees.

Kenyon College—Commencement Sunday, May 30. Principal speaker James Bellows, alumnus and editor of the New York Herald Tribune. Approximately 140 degrees.

Bowling Green State University—School will observe 50 years of graduation exercises with commencement Saturday, June 5. President William T. Jerome III will confer approximately 1,191 degrees at the golden anniversary program—a record for the school. Principal speaker Raymond H. Mulford chief executive officer of Owens-Illinois, Inc., Toledo.

Findlay College—Commencement Saturday, June 5, 2 p.m., principal speaker, Dr. John D. Millett, chancellor, Ohio Board of Regents.

About 500 graduates will receive degrees at the Oberlin College commencement June 14. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., will be the speaker and will be awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.

John Carroll University will graduate the largest class in its history, with 445 candidates receiving degrees June 13. The most Rev. Clarence G. Issenmann, coadjutor bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Cleveland, will be the speaker.

Dr. Kingman Brewster, president of Yale University, will be the speaker at the June 15 commencement of Caste Institute of Technology. Some 560 graduates will be awarded degrees.

Ohio Colleges Graduate Record Number This Year

The Circleville Herald, Tues. May 25, 1965 5
Circleville, Ohio

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The traditional bustle of cap and gown time is at hand at scores of Ohio's colleges and ahead schools will be turning out what for many will be a record number of graduates.

Modernization and changing of many college procedures, such as trimesters, and autumn and winter commencements for many big campuses, has not taken the luster off the traditional late May and June commencement speakers. Witness the popularity of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., civil rights leader. He's the most in demand among Ohio campuses—he'll speak at three Ohio commencements in June — at Wilberforce University June 9, at Oberlin College June 14, and Antioch College June 19.

And as always, men renounced in religion, industry, business, the arts and sciences will gather additional honors — in the form of honorary degrees presented during the commencement exercises.

The state's biggest campus—Ohio State University, will hold its commencement at 9 a.m. June 11 in the OSU Stadium. A record number of degrees, approximately 3,000 will be conferred. The old June commencement record was set last year when 2,721 received degrees.

President Novice G. Fawcett will address his own students as the principal commencement speaker. Four men will receive honorary degrees. They are George E. Mueller, head of the manned space flight program for NASA and a former OSU professor, honorary science degree; Elliott Nugent, playwright and OSU graduate, Doctor of Letters degree; Thomas F. Patton, Cleveland, president of Republic Steel Corp., Doctor of Laws degrees, and Joseph J. Spengler, professor of economics at Duke University and a former OSU student and instructor.

Other Commencements: Central State College — Commencement Sunday, June 6. Principal speaker, Dr. John W. Davis, president emeritus of West Virginia State University and currently with the legal department of the NAACP national headquarters. Approximately 341 degrees.

Wilberforce University — Commencement at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, June 9. Principal speaker, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., civil rights leader. Approximately 55 degrees.

Antioch College — commencement Saturday, June 19. Principal speaker, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. approximately 300 degrees comprising the largest class in the school's 113-year-old history.

Muskingum College — Commencement at 10 a.m. Monday, June 7, the school's 120th commencement. Principal speaker, H. Bruce Palmer of New York City, president of the National Industrial Conference Board. Approximately 250 degrees.

Marietta College — School's 128th commencement set for Monday, June 7, with the largest class in history, more than 300 students, to get degrees. No principal speaker.

Rio Grande College—school's 80th anniversary commencement at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, May 30. Principal speaker, Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio.

Otterbein College — Commencement Sunday, June 6. Principal speaker, Dr. B. D. Thomas, president of Battelle Memorial Institute, Columbus, who will receive an honorary Doctor of Science degree. Approximately 252 degrees.

Denison University — School's 124th commencement, 9:30 a.m. Monday, June 14. Principal speaker, Dr. Robert A. Charpie, director of technology of Union Carbide Corp., New York City. Approximately 350 degrees.

Wittenberg University—Commencement program Monday, June 7. Principal speaker, Dr. Haroslav Pelikan, professor of ecclesiastical history in the Yale University Divinity School. Largest class in university's history—420 students—to be graduated.

Ohio University—Commencement Sunday, June 6, at 1:15 p.m. Approximately 1,250 students to receive degrees. No principal speaker.

Capital University — School's 104th commencement Monday June 7. Principal speaker, Arthur Crawford, president of Marco Products Co., Columbus, director of electronic research, American Brake Shoe Co. Approximately 300 degrees.

Ohio Wesleyan — Commencement Sunday, June 13. Principal speaker, Dr. Willa B. Player, 1929 OWU graduate and president of Bennett College, Greensboro, N.D. More than 400 degrees.

Ohio Northern University — Commencement Sunday, June 13. Principal speaker, Dr. F. Bringle McIntosh, retiring as president of university, effective Sept. 1, after 16 years of service. Approximately 275 degrees.

Bluffton College—Commencement at 10 a.m. Monday, June 7. Principal speaker, Dr. James M. Read, president of Wilmington College. Approximately 120 degrees.

Kenyon College—Commencement Sunday, May 30. Principal speaker James Bellows, alumnus and editor of the New York Herald Tribune. Approximately 140 degrees.

Bowling Green State University — School will observe 50 years of graduation exercises with commencement Saturday, June 5. President William T. Jerome III will confer approximately 1,191 degrees at the golden anniversary program—a record for the school. Principal speaker Raymond H. Mulford chief executive officer of Owens-Illinois, Inc., Toledo.

Findlay College—Commencement Saturday, June 5, 2 p.m., principal speaker, Dr. John D. Millett, chancellor, Ohio Board of Regents.

About 500 graduates will receive degrees at the Oberlin College commencement June 14. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. will be the speaker and will be awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.

John Carroll University will graduate the largest class in its history, with 445 candidates receiving degrees June 13. The most Rev. Clarence G. Issenmann, coadjutor bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Cleveland, will be the speaker.

Miss Lansing, Mr. Hanson Are Married in Las Vegas

MRS. EUGENE P. HANSON II

Miss Sandra Lansing and Mr. Eugene P. (Skip) Hanson II, were united in marriage 6:30 p. m. May 8 in the First Methodist Church Chapel, Las Vegas, Nev. The Rev. Jon Longfellow performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. C. W. Clark, Santa Barbara, Calif., and the late Mr. Eugene Lansing. Mr. Hanson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene P. Hanson, 445 Northridge Road.

For her wedding the bride wore a white lace suit with a pink flowered cloche and she carried a cascade of pink roses centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. M. Gordon Jones, Avila Beach, Calif., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink princess dress trimmed with white lace and a lace bow in her hair. Her corsage was white roses.

Mr. M. Gordon Jones served as best man.

Mrs. Clark chose for her daughter's wedding a beige ribbon suit and matching hat. Her flowers were gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue and white print silk dress with a white linen duster and white chiffon hat.

A buffet champagne supper was held in the Emerald Room of the Sands Hotel following the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Santa Barbara High School. She attended Arizona State University and is now attending Woodbury College, Los Angeles, Calif. She was among four honor students who participated in a student tour of Europe.

Mr. Hanson is a graduate of Circleville High School. He attended Arizona State University, Tempe, Ariz., and is also now attending Woodbury College.

The couple is planning an extended trip to Europe. They will reside in North Hollywood, Calif.

Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Hillberry, Yakima, Wash., grandparent of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. A. Kramer, grandparents of the bridegroom, and his aunt, Miss Charlotte Kramer, all of Phoenix, Ariz.; M-Sgt. and Mrs. John Miller, Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. B. Weiss and daughter, Nancy, Van Nuys, Calif.; Mr. Steven Wolpa, Westchester, Calif.; Mr. Alan Love, Mr. Cam McClen and Mr. Paul Watterman, all of Pasadena, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hanson were hosts for a wedding rehearsal dinner at the Hacienda Hotel in Las Vegas.

Miss Higman, Mr. Hosler Exchange Vows

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Myrna Jean Higman and Mr. Harry R. Hosler III, 3 p. m. May 15 in the Methodist Church, Clintonwood, Va. The Rev. Thomas Cramer performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Una Higman, Williamsport, and the late Mr. Charles Higman. Mr. Hosler is the son of Mrs. Ethel Hosler, 470 1/2 N. Court St., and Mr. Harry Hosler Jr., Mt. Sterling.

The new Mrs. Hosler, a graduate of Williamsport High School, is employed at the General Telephone Company of Ohio, 113 Pinckney St.

Mr. Hosler, also a graduate of Williamsport High School, served four years in the U. S. Navy and is employed at the Du Pont Plant.

The couple is residing at 320 Cedar Heights Road.

Convicted Slayer Turns Poet in Ohio Penitentiary

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Robert K. Domer, Canton attorney and mortgage broker sentenced to death in the Ohio Penitentiary's electric chair for murder until an appellate court reversed the conviction, has turned poet.

In this week's issue of the OP News, inmate publication of the penitentiary, is a poem by Domer, titled "Thankful? For What?"

Domer was sentenced by Stark County Common Pleas Court to death in 1963 for killing itinerant Akron fruit peddler Howard Riddle and burning his body in Domer's car, allegedly so his family could collect on a $288,000 insurance policy.

The appellate court reversed the decision on the grounds that Domer was tried in the wrong court. Last week, Stark County Prosecutor Norman Putman urged the Ohio Supreme Court to review the appellate court's reversal.

Domer's poem:

"Thankful? For what?
In bygone days the Pilgrims trod
Along those paths that lead to God.

An He blessed them, so they blessed Him,
Although their winters boded grim.
On what they had they did not brood,
So paused to show their gratitude.

Thankful? For what?
In present days our Lord has blessed
The lives of some; what of the rest?

For those who have, deep thanks are due;
But some have not, do they thank too?

DEAR TROUBLE: Thank her for her suggestions. Then tell her you must shop where it is convenient for you, and the price fits your pocketbook. And if she resumes the suggestions, tune her out and change the subject.

ACCUTRON SPACEVIEW "H"
The most unusual timepiece ever created. Transparent dial jets you see the space movement. Waterproof, shock-protected, Yellow case top, stainless steel back, adjustable band. $150.00

That was the year they put the balance wheel into the watch and started watches ticking. Now the tick tock is obsolete. After 300 years, it's been replaced by the tiny Accutron tuning fork which keeps time through vibrations. The result: a very faint hum and the most precise wrist timepiece ever. Accutron guarantees average monthly accuracy within 60 seconds. We'd say this is the perfect gift of time.

Convicted Slayer Turns Poet in Ohio Penitentiary

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Robert K. Domer, Canton attorney and mortgage broker sentenced to die in the Ohio Penitentiary's electric chair for murder until an appellate court reversed the conviction, has turned poet.

In this week's issue of the OP News, inmate publication of the penitentiary, is a poem by Domer, titled "Thankful? For What?"

Domer was sentenced by Stark County Common Pleas Court to death in 1963 for killing itinerant Akron fruit peddler Howard Riddle and burning his body in Domer's car, allegedly so his family could collect on a $288,000 insurance policy.

The appellate court reversed the decision on the grounds that Domer was tried in the wrong court. Last week, Stark County Prosecutor Norman Putman urged the Ohio Supreme Court to review the appellate court's reversal.

Domer's poem:
"Thankful? For what?
In bygone days the Pilgrims trod

Along those paths that lead to God.

An He blessed them, so they blessed Him.

Although their winters boded grim.

On what they had they did not brood.

So paused to show their gratitude.

Thankful? For what?

In present days our Lord has blessed

The lives of some; what of the rest?

For those who have, deep thanks are due;

But some have not, do they thank too?

1st Teays Valley Invitational Won By CHS Thinclads

The Circleville High School track team was the winner by a slim margin in yesterday's first annual Teays Valley Invitational track meet.

The 10-team field saw the Tigers score 50 5-6 points. Second place Hamilton tallied 48. The outcome was in doubt until the mile relay was run.

At that point Circleville led by one-third point. Although the pole vault was still in process, it was known that Hamilton had not placed a man in the event. Circleville's Gene Smith tied Leasure of Miami Trace for third to clinch the meet victory.

Other teams at the meet were Carroll, 33 1-3 points; Groveport, 27; Liberty Union, 26; Miami Trace, 18½; Teays Valley, 11 1-3; Westfall, 7; Logan Elm, 2; Amanda Clearcreek, 0.

The outstanding individual performance was by Jim Wood. The Tiger timber topper won both the high and low hurdles as well as the 100-yard dash.

He established new field marks in the dash and the 180-yard low hurdles.

Teays Valley Coach Marion Waits, who planned and supervised the meet, noted that eight records were broken and one tied.

Going down as Viking field records were Wood's times of 10.08 in the 100 and 20.5 in the low hurdles. Also setting records were Hamilton's Peters with throws of 147 feet 5 inches in the discus and 52 feet 9 inches in the shot.

In the mile run, Hart of Hamilton won in 4:54, a new mark. Glendenning of Carroll set a record in the 880-yard run by winning in 2:11.4.

The other two records came in the relays, run as two and four lap events at Teays Valley. These races are slightly shorter than the conventional 880-yard and mile relays.

THE TIED record was in the 440-yard dash where Heil of Groveport won in 54.7.

Waits said after the meet that next year's Invitational will be held the Monday afternoon following the district track meet, with a rain date set for the next day.

The meet was originally scheduled April 24 and was rained out on that date.

John Smith's 11-foot effort in the pole vault provided the only first for the host school.

Pole Vault — J. Smith (TV) Strickland (LU), G. Smith (C), and Leasure (MT) tie, Rathbun (Car), 11'.

High Jump — Price (C), Whittington (LU), Southern (MT), Wilson (TV), Crago (Car), Tigner (C), 6'1".

Broad Jump — Rhinehart (H), Thomas (C), Friley (Car), Martin (C), Hammond (H), 20' 7-8".

Discus — Peters (H), Smith (C), Swackhammer (Car), Loukas (MT), Rathbun (Car), 147' 5".

Shot Put — Peters (H), Ramey (C), Jenkins (MT), Speakman (LE), Buhl (MT), 52' 9".

100-Yard Dash — Wood (C), Heil (G), Corsica (H), Sharpe (W), Savage (W), 10.08.

120-Yard High Hurdles — Wood (C), Dice (MT), Davis (Car), Price (C), Stemple (GP), 15.4.

440-Yard Dash — Heil (G), Keller (H), Hawkins (LU), Corsica (H), Sharpe (W), 54.7.

220-Yard Low Hurdles — Wood (C), Arledge (Car), Ansel (LU), Dice (MT), Hammond (H), 20.5.

880-Yard Run — Glendenning (C), Miller (G), McCain (C), Reichelderfer (G), Garrett (W), 2:11.4.

880-Yard Relay — Keller (G), Heil (H), Hawkins (LU), Corsica (H), Sharpe (W), 2:23.

Mile — Hart (H), Romine (Car), Swank (TV), Genozes (G), Koehler (LU).

880-Yard Relay — Hamilton, Liberty Union, Circleville, Carroll, Miami Trace, 1:28.4.

Mickey Lolich, Detroit Tiger southpaw, never won more than 10 games a season until last year. As a sophomore he won 18 in 1964. His previous high was 10 wins at Portland, Ore., in 1962.

Vikings Trip East, 11-3

Teays Valley's baseball team defeated Columbus East, 11-3, last night under the lights on the Viking diamond.

The Russ Gregg coached unit notched eight of their runs in the third inning when the visiting East hurler issued seven walks and allowed three hits.

Rick Pickering went the route for the winners. He fanned seven East batsmen and walked two in the seven-inning tilt.

The win boosts the Vikings past the .500 mark with a 8-7 record for the year. Tonight they meet Pleasant View in a South Suburban League game.

The Panthers from Pleasant View last night lost in the regional baseball tournament by a 2-1 count in a 10-inning game.

All-America QB Heading For Ministry

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Michigan's All-America quarterback Bob Timberlake says 11 months ago, as he moved toward the top in athletics, "I realized my whole life was really off the track."

Timberlake, here for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes' 10th anniversary dinner Monday night, said this realization may have been the starting point which led to his decision to enter the ministry.

"I tried to change," he said. "Then I read a book, 'A Man Called Peter.' Sometimes when Peter had a problem he let God work it out."

"This was an entirely new concept to me. I decided to let God work it out," the star from Franklin, Ohio, said.

He also said he believes an important factor in Michigan's grid success last fall was that "we had six committed Christians who helped hold the club together."

Timberlake will join the New York Giants of the National Football League in August and plans to attend Princeton Seminary next spring.

38 Ohioans Win Tests in U.S. Open

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Twenty-four pros and 14 amateurs — playing at Columbus, Cincinnati and Warren—bested 185 other golfers over 36-holes Monday to win spots in three Ohio sectional qualifiers for the U.S. Open Championship.

Joe Taylor, a pro from Charleston, W. Va., fired a 72-66—138 at Western Hills Country Club in Cincinnati for the low score in all the local qualifiers.

Dennis Bradley, 26-year-old assistant pro at Oakwood Country Club in South Euclid, shot a 69-70—139 over two Warren country clubs—Trumbull and Squaw Creek—to lead the Northern Ohio field.

At Brookside Country Club in Columbus, Billy Collins, assistant pro at Columbus Country club, fired a 73-71—144 to take top honors in the entral Ohio qualifier.

Among the qualifiers:
Warren
Joe Kotlarczyk, Fremont, 144; Dick Yates, Canton, 146; Charles Smith, Elyria, 147; Frank Beley, Canton, 149.

Columbus
Robert Anderson, Newark, 150; Robert Litterer Jr., Athens, 150.

Cincinnati
Joe Miller, Hamilton, amateur, 144.

Ted Kleinhans, former major league pitcher, is in his 19th season as Syracuse baseball coach.

Candy Sale Scheduled for Baseballers

The Circleville Youth Baseball Program Board of Directors last night set June 4 and 5 as dates for the organization's annual candy sales.

The sale is one of the primary fund raising functions for the program. It is the only one in which members of the teams are involved.

The candy will be distributed to players 8 p. m. June 2, along with the uniforms.

In other business conducted by the directors, the schedule for the coming season was approved.

The first games are June 7. A full schedule is planned from then on.

Swim Clinic Scheduled at Local Pool

Jim Shea, coach of the Circleville Piranaha swim team, has announced that a swim clinic will be held 6 p. m. Thursday at the Circleville Swimming Pool.

The clinic, Shea said, while primarily for those interested in officiating at swim meets is open to the public. Anyone interested in competitive swimming is welcome.

Advanced members of the swim team will demonstrate the four competitive strokes and the fine points of competitive swimming, such as starts and turns, Shea explained.

"In addition," Shea stated, "Dick Penn, Ralph Tipton, Willard McConaughy and myself will go into detail the intricate points of judging a swim meet, such as judge, referee, timers, starter, stroke judge, touch judge, turn judge and scorekeeper."

At the close of the clinic, a short examination will be given to those parents of Swim Team members, or anyone else interested in officiating at local meets.

As a member of Central Ohio Swim League, the local team has three meets at home, and the rest on the road. The local meets will be June 24 with Mt. Vernon; July 8 with Hilltop; July 22 with Grove City.

Other meet dates are: June 17, League Carnival at Swim Land Pool in Columbus, or with the Lockbourne Air Force Base at the Air Base pool; July 1, League Meet at Upper Arlington; July 12 and 13, Twin Towers Invitational at Grove City; July 15 League Meet at Delaware; July 19 and 20, Junior Olympics at Sunline Pool in Columbus; July 23, Delaware Invitational at Delaware; July 26, Lancaster Invitational at Lancaster; July 27, League Championships at Mt. Vernon; Aug. 5, Tiki Swim Club; and Aug. 13 and 14, Champ of Champs at Lincoln Swim Pool in Columbus.

1. Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the many wonderful friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during the death of my husband and brother,
William Taffie. Also for the beautiful flowers. We also wish to express our heartfelt thanks to Dr. Anderson, Father Mason, Mader Funeral Home, and the staff at Berger Hospital. Your kindness and thoughtfulness is more than appreciated.
Mrs. Elizabeth Taffie, Brothers and Sisters
There comes a time for all of us.
When we must say goodbye. But faith and hope and love and trust.
Can never, never die. Although the curtain falls at last. Is that a cause to grieve? The future's fair then the past. If only we believe,
And trust in God's eternal care.
So when the Master calls. Let's say that life is still more fair although the curtain falls.

Clay, Liston Set To Have at It For Heavyweight Crown Tonight

LEWISTON, Maine (AP) — In a television studio named the Central Maine Youth Center, heavyweight champion Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston will meet again tonight in a 15-round title fight which will be telecast live to millions in North America and Europe.

Reports that there may be an attempt on Clay's life by followers of the slain Black Nationalist leader Malcolm X have increased interest in this controversial return bout but failed to cause any noticeable stir at the ticket office.

There may be only 3,000 paying customers in the high school hockey rink when Clay, a 13-10 underdog, steps into the ring at 9:30 p.m., EST, to defend his crown against the man he dethroned in a controversial fight in Miami Beach 15 months ago.

But, through the magic of closed-circuit television and the Early Bird satellite, millions of fans will get a chance to see these two strapping fighters strive to answer the many questions people have been asking since the unbeaten Clay became champion on Feb. 25, 1964.

On that night, the brash young gladiator from Louisville, Ky., ascended to boxing's most prized throne when the formidable Liston, a prohibitive 7-1 favorite, quit on his stool after the sixth round of a strange contest.

At the end of the fourth round Clay, claiming he was "blinded" and unable to see, wanted to quit. At the end of the sixth, Liston, blood streaming from a wide and deep gash under his left eye, and complaining that

They were supposed to have met in Boston last November but an emergency hernia operation for Clay forced a postponement and then a dispute over the promotional background finally sent the fight out of Boston to this textile town of 40,000.

So, at last the two bitter rivals appear set to have it out in the ring in a town still surprised at getting boxing's greatest attraction.

At prices of $25, and $100, only 3,000 or so spectators may pay about $150,000 for the live bout, but the closed circuit telecast to 258 locations in North America, the Mutual Broadcasting System's radio broadcast, the Early Bird transmission to Europe and other extras may make this a $5-million promotion.

Each fighter will collect in the neighborhood of $600,000 and up for a battle that few experts expect to go the limit.

The 23-year-old Clay earlier had predicted he would flatten his rival in nine rounds, three rounds, and "early." On the eve of his first defense, however, he would not predict any round.

"I'm just going to beat that tired old man," said Clay, winner of all 20 of his pro fights, 16 by knockouts.

"I'm gonna get him on a knockout," said Liston, listed as 31 years old but believe to be at least five years older. "I made a mistake I ain't gonna make again. I got new plans. If he comes to fight, it'll be short. If he comes to run, I'll have to trap him."

"I'm gonna let him come," said Clay. "And when he does I'm gonna circle him and stick him — circle and stick. I'm gonna pop, pop, pop him."

That's the way the first fight went. This time the Liston brain trust says the muscular ex-champion, unbeaten in his last 28 fights over a nine-year period until he bowed to Clay, will attempt to pin Cassius to the ropes as Jose Torres did in dethroning 11-light-heavyweight king Willie Pastrano.

Under Maine rules, there will be a non-voting referee and three judges. The judges will score the fight on the 10-point must system in which the winner of each round gets 10 points and the loser nine or less.

"I don't make no difference," said Liston. "All we need is a referee who can count to 10."

Liston's record is 35-2, including 25 knockouts.

The reports that he may be the target of Black Nationalist avengers haven't blunted Clay's bravado. He has been guarded by police since his arrival here Sunday.

"They don't scare me no how," said Clay. "I fear no living man, only Allah."

Sportsvision, Inc., which is handling the closed-circuit television, took out a three-day, $1-million policy on Clay "as a way of demonstrating that we don't see any likelihood of anything happening. We got the policy for $1,000 and that's 1,000-to-1 odds. We're confident everything will go off according to schedule."

Views on Television — Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — CBS News must be rated "excellent" for its intentions and originality in Monday night's "National Drivers Test." But its score for execution of the program is that of the average driver who took the quiz — somewhere between "fair" and "poor."

Some of the photography was so fuzzy and badly lighted that viewers with small television screens could not distinguish the road hazards they were supposed to identify. Phraseology of some questions was involved and tricky.

This test taker feels that the poor average showing of drivers in CBS' studio audiences in four cities — a score of 51 out of a possible 80 — was more the result of the program's presentation than inadequacies of the drivers.

CBS also could have dispensed with the on-the-spot sampling of the audience with the aid of computers which distracted from the primary interest of the viewer in testing his own driving skills.

It was, however, an interesting beginning of something new. And if it helps to reduce the annual toll of lives in automobile accidents, it will have been the most important television program of the year.

NBC turned up in a close race as the winner of the most recent Nielsen ratings. The averages achieved for the two weeks ending May 9 were NBC, 17.4; CBS, 17.2; and ABC, 16.2. The numbers indicate that television viewing already has begun its annual warm-weather decline.

Reds Win Handily in Texas Dome

HOUSTON (AP)—The second-place Cincinnati Reds had no problem with the Astrodome Monday night as they made their 1965 debut here and beat Houston 5-2.

Jim Maloney gave up four hits and struck out four as he gained his fifth victory without a defeat. Joey Jay finished up the game for him.

The Astros got the first run in the opening inning when Joe Morgan walked, advanced on Leo Cardenas' fumble and crossed the plate as Walter Bond rapped a single to right.

Maloney's worries did not last long as his teammates jumped on Houston starter Dave Giusti in the next inning for five hits and three runs.

Gordy Coleman singled with one out and Deron Johnson then tied the score with a triple. John Edwards' double and the first of Cardenas' two run-producing singles ran the score to 3-1.

Maloney also singled off Giusti, but relief pitcher Larry Dierker ended the inning by getting Pete Rose to hit into a double play.

In the fourth inning, Edwards got his second double of the game and Cardenas' single brought him across the plate. Cardenas scored on Maloney's double. Maloney tried to stretch it into a triple, but was thrown out.

Captain Stein Owre of University of Wyoming's tennis team comes from Oslo, Norway. He's a 24-year-old junior.

Detroit Slugger Leaves Chisox In Shambles

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Bill Freehan thinks like a pitcher.

If he thought like a hitter, the Chicago White Sox pitching staff might really be in trouble.

As it was, Freehan left White Sox Manager Al Lopez' vaulted staff in a shambles Monday night, belting two home runs, one a grand slam, as Detroit rolled to an 8-3 victory over Chicago.

Freehan's slugging helped teammate Mickey Lolich to his sixth victory of the season and, if you take Lolich's word for it, his batterymate's catching didn't hurt the effort.

"I like working with him," says Lolich, who won 18 last year. "He knows my pitches, what I like to throw, and when I like to throw it. He thinks like a pitcher. And he never lets his hitting interfere with his catching."

Freehan's hitting was certainly interfering with the White Sox' catching. His grand-slam homer capped a six-run Tiger rally in the third that erased an early 2-0 Chicago lead.

In the fifth inning Freehan tagged another homer, his third of the season, closing Detroit's scoring.

Elsewhere in the American League, New York thumped Cleveland 15-3 and Baltimore nipped Washington 2-1.

In the National League, the New York Mets swept a two-night doubleheader from Philadelphia, 6-2 and 4-1, Milwaukee edged San Francisco 4-3, Pittsburgh whipped Chicago 6-4, Cincinnati topped Houston 5-2 and St. Louis defeated Los Angeles 6-4.

Freehan's third-inning shot was the first career grand slam for the 23-year-old catcher who is in his third full season with the Tigers. Bill, a $125,000 bonus baby, batted .300 and was one of only five American League hitters to reach that figure last season.

The Yankees also used the long ball to batter Cleveland. Joe Pepitone ripped a grand-slam homer and Tommy Tresh added a two-run shot as New York exploded for its biggest run output since August 1962.

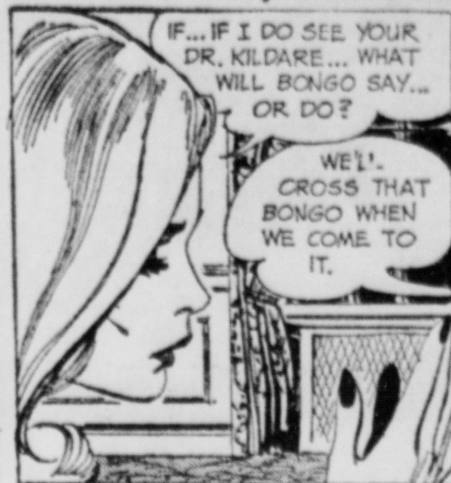

Pepitone's shot, his third homer in the last three games, climaxed a seven-run Yankee sixth and then New York wrapped it up with four more runs in the seventh as Tresh connected.

Mel Stottlemyre parlayed the heavy support into his fifth victory of the season and contributed a run-scoring double to the 16-hit Yankee attack.

Luis Aparicio scored one run and drove in the other for Baltimore's victory over the Senators. Little Luis drove in Russ Snyder with the deciding run in the seventh, rapping a long double over Frank Howard's head.

Jim Palmer and Wally Bunker combined to hurl the four-hitter with Palmer getting credit for his second victory.

The 23-year-old Clay earlier had predicted he would flatten his rival in nine rounds, three rounds, and "early." On the eve of his first defense, however, he would not predict any round.

"I'm just going to beat that tired old man," said Clay, winner of all 20 of his pro fights, 16 by knockouts.

"I'm gonna get him on a knockout," said Liston, listed as 31 years old but believe to be at least five years older. "I made a mistake I ain't gonna make again. I got new plans. If he comes to fight, it'll be short. If he comes to run, I'll have to trap him."

"I'm gonna let him come," said Clay. "And when he does I'm gonna circle him and stick him — circle and stick. I'm gonna pop, pop, pop him."

That's the way the first fight went. This time the Liston brain trust says the muscular ex-champion, unbeaten in his last 28 fights over a nine-year period until he bowed to Clay, will attempt to pin Cassius to the ropes as Jose Torres did in dethroning light-heavyweight king Willie Pastrano.

Under Maine rules, there will be a non-voting referee and three judges. The judges will score the fight on the 10-point must system in which the winner of each round gets 10 points and the loser nine or less.

"It don't make no difference," said Liston. "All we need is a referee who can count to 10."

Liston's record is 35-2, including 25 knockouts. The reports that he may be the target of Black Nationalist avengers haven't blunted Clay's bravado. He has been guarded by police since his arrival here Sunday.

"They don't scare me no how," said Clay. "I fear no living man, only Allah."

Sportsvision, Inc., which is handling the closed-circuit television, took out a three-day, $1-million policy on Clay "as a way of demonstrating that we don't see any likelihood of anything happening. We got the policy for $1,000 and that's 1,000-to-1 odds. We're confident everything will go off according to schedule."

Views on Television — Radio

NEW YORK (AP) — CBS News must be rated "excellent" for its intentions and originality in Monday night's "National Drivers Test." But its score for execution of the program is that of the average driver who took the quiz — somewhere between "fair" and "poor."

Some of the photography was so fuzzy and badly lighted that viewers with small television screens could not distinguish the road hazards they were supposed to identify. Phraseology of some questions was involved and tricky.

This test taker feels that the poor average showing of drivers in CBS' studio audiences in four cities — a score of 51 out of a possible 80 — was more the result of the program's presentation than inadequacies of the drivers.

CBS also could have dispensed with the on-the-spot sampling of the audience with the aid of computers which distracted from the primary interest of the viewer in testing his own driving skills.

It was, however, an interesting beginning of something new. And if it helps to reduce the annual toll of lives in automobile accidents, it will have been the most important television program of the year.

NBC turned up in a close race as the winner of the most recent Nielsen ratings. The averages achieved for the two weeks ending May 9 were NBC, 17.4; CBS, 17.2; and ABC, 16.2. The numbers indicate that television viewing already has begun its annual warm-weather decline.

Reds Win Handily in Texas Dome

HOUSTON (AP) — The second-place Cincinnati Reds had no problem with the Astrodome Monday night as they made their 1965 debut here and beat Houston, 5-2.

Jim Maloney gave up four hits and struck out four as he gained his fifth victory without a defeat. Joey Jay finished up the game for him.

The Astros got the first run in the opening inning when Joe Morgan walked, advanced on Leo Cardenas' fumble and crossed the plate as Walter Bond rapped a single to right.

Maloney's worries did not last long as his teammates jumped on Houston starter Dave Giusti in the next inning for five hits and three runs.

Gordy Coleman singled with one out and Deron Johnson then tied the score with a triple. John Edwards' double and the first of Cardenas' two run-producing singles ran the score to 3-1.

Maloney also singled off Giusti, but relief pitcher Larry Dierker ended the inning by getting Pete Rose to hit into a double play.

In the fourth inning, Edwards got his second double of the game and Cardenas' single brought him across the plate. Cardenas scored on Maloney's double. Maloney tried to stretch it into a triple, but was thrown out.

Detroit Slugger Leaves Chisox In Shambles

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Bill Freehan thinks like a pitcher.

If he thought like a hitter, the Chicago White Sox pitching staff might really be in trouble.

As it was, Freehan left White Sox Manager Al Lopez' vaulted staff in a shambles Monday night, belting two home runs, one a grand slam, as Detroit rolled to an 8-3 victory over Chicago.

Freehan's slugging helped teammate Mickey Lolich to his sixth victory of the season and, if you take Lolich's word for it, his "batterymate" catching didn't hurt the effort.

"I like working with him," says Lolich, who won 18 last year. "He knows my pitches, what I like to throw, and when I like to throw it. He thinks like a pitcher. And he never lets his hitting interfere with his catching."

Freehan's hitting was certainly interfering with the White Sox' catching. His grand-slam homer capped a six-run Tiger rally in the third that erased an early 2-0 Chicago lead.

In the fifth inning Freehan tagged another homer, his third of the season, closing Detroit's scoring.

Elsewhere in the American League, New York thumped Cleveland 15-5 and Baltimore nipped Washington 2-1.

In the National League, the New York Mets swept a two-night doubleheader from Philadelphia, 6-2 and 4-1, Milwaukee edged San Francisco 4-3, Pittsburgh whipped Chicago 6-4, Cincinnati topped Houston 5-2 and St. Louis defeated Los Angeles 6-4.

Freehan's third-inning shot was the first career grand slam for the 23-year-old catcher who is in his third full season with the Tigers. Bill, a $125,000 bonus baby, batted .300 and was one of only five American League hitters to reach that figure last season.

The Yankees also used the long ball to batter Cleveland. Joe Pepitone ripped a grand-slam homer and Tommy Tresh added a two-run shot as New York exploded for its biggest run output since August 1962.

Pepitone's shot, his third homer in the last three games, climaxed a seven-run Yankee sixth and then New York wrapped it up with four more runs in the seventh as Tresh connected.

Mel Stottlemyre parlayed the heavy support into his fifth victory of the season and contributed a run-scoring double to the 16-hit Yankee attack.

Luis Aparicio scored one run and drove in the other for Baltimore's victory over the Senators. Little Luis drove in Russ Snyder with the deciding run in the seventh, rapping a long double over Frank Howard's head.

Jim Palmer and Wally Bunker combined to hurl the four-hitter with Palmer getting credit for his second victory.

Yanks Romp Over Indians In 15-5 Test

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Yankees, limping along in eighth place in the American League race, seem to perk up for the Cleveland Indians. They were at a gallop Monday night.

The Yanks poured on 16 hits against four Indian pitchers for a 15-5 victory, their most productive game since they scored 21 runs at Kansas City Aug. 19, 1962.

The score was 3-3 until New York unloaded for seven runs in the sixth inning. Ten Yankees went to the plate and Joe Pepitone did the most damage with a grand slam homer into the right field seats, scoring behind Phil Linz, Bobby Richardson and Mickey Mantle.

It was Pepitone's third homer in the last three games.

The Indians had scored single runs in the first, fourth and fifth, including Fred Whitfield's sixth homer of the season. Then a pair of late throws opened the gates.

Clete Boyer's double started the Yankee rally. After Doc Edwards reached on an infield single, pitcher Mel Stottlemyre doubled, putting New York ahead.

When Linz bounced to Larry Brown, Edwards beat Brown's throw to the plate. Floyd Weaver relieved Jack Kralick but the Yankees were just getting warmed up.

Richardson bounced to Weaver, who threw too late at second to get Linz and Stottlemyre scored. Mantle walked. Then Pepitone connected.

Mental Health Unit Names Officials, Eyes Objectives

Five new directors were elected to three-year terms and officers named when the Pickaway County Mental Health Assn. conducted its annual meeting here.

The new directors are Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Robert Burton, Miss Jane Benbow, Tom Downing and Joseph Horst. Officers for 1965-66 are: Mrs. David Whaley, president; Joseph Horst, vice president; Miss Benbow, secretary; Mrs. Burton, treasurer.

Speakers for the evening were Richard Fisher, Mrs. Whaley, Leora Sayre, Mrs. Fannie

Brooks and Mrs. Maxine Plummer. They were introduced by Tom Downing, program chairman.

Fisher presented background information on the five-county guidance clinic which is now almost through the process of incorporation. It is called the Scioto-Paint Valley Guidance Center. Plans are being made for opening the Chillicothe facility and a psychiatrist is being sought to serve as director.

A DESCRIPTION of services to be provided by the Pickaway County Mental Health Assn. and the budget required was given by Mrs. Whaley. She extended the association's appreciation on being accepted as an agency of the local Community Fund.

A brief talk on retardation and its implications was offered by Mrs. Sayre. She presented members of her teen-age class who entertained with a musical program. The youngsters also showed aprons they had made.

Mrs. Brooks described a sheltered workshop. She said it is a facility where retarded adults (over 21) who are too old for retarded school but not capable of full time constructive occupations can still perform useful work under supervision. She termed it an important function in a complete mental health program.

Mrs. Plummer, field representative for the Ohio Mental Health Assn., gave a brief rundown on this group's history and accomplishments, especially the creation of the Department of Mental Hygiene and House Bill No. 6.

News of World in Brief

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—William L. White, Mount Vernon business man and engineer, said today he had set June 1 as the date he plans to announce his candidacy for the Republican gubernatorial nomination in the May 3, 1966 primary.

White was an unsuccessful candidate for the nomination in 1962. He said "in this campaign, I shall expose (Gov.) James Rhodes' deplorable record of juggling, of broken promises, political maneuvering and failures."

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Two young Lima men were under $25,000 bonds today, charged with second degree murder in separate fatal beatings.

Frank Helton, 25, and Marshall E. Ramsey, 18, were arraigned Monday in Municipal Court.

Helton is charged with the fatal beating Sunday of his girl friend, 21-year-old Lottie Ellen Lemler.

Ramsey is charged in the beating of Bedford H. Hudspeth, 57, of Brinkley, Ark., who was found in a downtown alley Saturday night and died Sunday.

This robot is Tobor the Great, the 450-pound aluminum star in a 1954 movie of the same name. Tobor gave a subtle portrayal as an international counterespionage whose personal life was marred by emotional problems.

Tobor fell rapidly from stardom, however, and was bought at auction for $30 by antique dealer John Shiels, who stationed the large automation outside his West Hollywood shop.

Shiels reported that Tobor disappeared late Sunday night.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Postmaster General John A. Gronouski has ordered post offices to stop interception and destruction of unclaimed Communist mail from abroad.

Gronouski's directive went out to post offices at ports of entry late Monday after the Supreme Court ruled unconstitutional a 1962 law that permitted interception and destruction of such unsealed mail unless the person to whom it was addressed made a written request for it.

He said the action would free some 40 postal employees for other work and would save the department an estimated $250,000 a year.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A committee of 11 scientists reported Monday that "population explosion" is a crucial problem within the United States. They urged the government to take a bigger role in promoting birth control.

The scientists called for appointment of a high-level administrator to push public and private programs. Their views were in a report to the National Academy of Sciences.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson asked Congress today for $101 million for water resources research and said predictions of possible serious shortages in the future must not come true.

Johnson asked the money for the committee on water resources research of the Federal Council of Science and Technology for use in the fiscal year starting July 1. The request compares with an estimated $75.3 million being spent for water resources research this fiscal year.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson's plan to reorganize the Customs Service and eliminate 53 top jobs from political patronage went into effect today after Congress failed to block it.

A Senate move Monday to veto the plan failed 65 to 17. No vote was taken in the House.

Under the plan, the Customs Service will be reorganized with establishment of a series of regional offices. Johnson said annual savings would be $9 million.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson says civilian agencies saved $217 million the first three months of 1965 by reducing costs and improving operations.

He said this brings savings by the agencies to $500 million in the first nine months of fiscal 1965, which ends June 30. This is in addition to Defense Department savings estimated at $2.5 billion.

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania conferred for almost an hour Monday.

It was not disclosed what the two Republicans discussed at the meeting preceding a special buffet luncheon in the governor's reception room. Eisenhower and his wife were guests of honor at the luncheon attended by more than 50 state Cabinet officers and legislative leaders from both parties and their wives.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, opening a new drive for volunteers for the Domestic Peace Corps, has urged University of Minnesota students to "give a year of your lives in service to Americans who live in poverty."

The vice president also spoke Monday at MacAlester College in St. Paul, where he was awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws degree at commencement exercises.

OSU's Next Frosh Class About Full

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The freshman class at Ohio State University's main campus next fall is just about full.

But that doesn't mean that high school graduates cannot enroll at Ohio State in Columbus.

It does mean, said Dean Ronald B. Thompson Monday, that some of them may have to attend a branch college which next fall will hold classes between 4 and 10 p. m.

Eventually the branch will have its own facilities across the Olentangy River from the sprawling main campus. But until that comes about, the only distinction between main campus and branch students will be class hours.

As a general rule, to qualify for admission to the main campus a high school graduate will have to rank in the top third of his high school graduating class.

Bright students with mediocre high school records can still qualify on the basis of tests.

And, said Dean Thompson, Ohio State "will continue to admit all the high school graduates who apply." The difference will be that they may be admitted to a branch, either in Columbus or in one of the seven other cities which have such two-year facilities.

Between 1,500 and 2,000 freshmen are expected to enter the new Columbus branch. Main campus enrollment is limited to 6,300, about 400 fewer than last year.

Other state universities this year are imposing similar restrictions.

Local Couples Attend KC Meet

Two Pickaway County couples were among the 1200 delegates who attended the 66th annual convention of the Knights of Columbus during the weekend at the Cleveland-Sharon Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Thornton, Route 2, and Mr. and Mrs. William Rich, 395 Sunnyview Drive, participated in the convention activities. Thornton is a past grand knight of the local Hannan Council, K of C, and Rich is warden for the local unit.

The Circleville council was cited as one of the leading units in the state in the six-point program contest conducted by the state council.

Social highlights of the convention included a Friday night pre-convention party for delegates and guests, a grand march and State Deputy's Ball on Saturday evening, a luncheon, tea and style show program.

Father Lacks Faith; Boy Tries Spree

CLEVELAND (AP) — A 17-year-old Euclid boy told a Juvenile Court judge he began a one-month crime spree because his father questioned his judgment and would not let him get a driver's license.

The youth told Judge Alter G. Whitlatch Monday: "When he said 'no,' and told me that he did not trust my judgment, I decided I could prove myself by stealing and not getting caught."

According to a probation officer, the youth is a top student at Euclid High School, active in a church youth group, a member of the school track team, and adept in mathematics. He also has an after-school and Saturday job.

Despite these achievements, the father admitted lack of faith in his son.

"He has never done anything to prove himself to me," the father said with a choked voice and tears in his eyes.

The youth and a 16-year-old companion were arrested recently by Lyndhurst police in a stolen car. Police say the boys admitted looting 21 homes in Euclid, Wickliffe, Willoughby Hills and Richmond Heights and stealing another car.

Said Judge Whitlatch:

"What a strange situation this case presents. What more could a father ask of a son? If I had a boy like that, the buttons on my vest would be popping with pride."

Mrs. Whaley showed slides furnished by the Ohio Mental

Following a business meeting conducted by Everett Beers, Mrs. Whaley commented on two bills before the Ohio Legislature. She urged association members to voice opposition to House Bill 773 which would curtail aid to crippled children and special education classes. Speaking as legislative chairman for the group, she said House Bill 84 that is now pending would restore subsidy for persons beyond age 21. She said this aid is necessary for the sheltered workshop program.

A LOOK at the proposed budget for 1966 listed anticipated expenses at $600. The items include equipment and recreation functions for the retarded school, $100; state allocation, which is returned to the county in services, $100; Pumpkin Show booth and county workshop, $100 postage and stationery, $10; clinic support, $75; fund for indigent patients at state hospitals, $145; transportation and expenses for representative to state meetings, $60; general miscellaneous expenses, $10.

The Pickaway County Mental Health Assn. will be concerned with five major areas during the coming year. They are:

1. Help in all ways possible with equipment and services at the local Retarded School;
2. Support and promote the Scioto-Point Valley Guidance Center;
3. Assist county residents in state hospitals;
4. Promote an informational program to acquaint the public with the prevalence of mental illness and the problems that result;
5. Continue planning for a sheltered workshop in this community for adults capable of limited work and recreation under supervision.

The Pickaway Association's motto is "Service to those who cannot help themselves." The public is invited to participate in and support the organization's program.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The freshman class at Ohio State University's main campus next fall is just about full.

But that doesn't mean that high school graduates cannot enroll at Ohio State in Columbus.

It does mean, said Dean Ronald B. Thompson Monday, that some of them may have to attend a branch college which next fall will hold classes between 4 and 10 p. m.

Eventually the branch will have its own facilities across the Olentangy River from the sprawling main campus. But until that comes about, the only distinction between main campus and branch students will be class hours.

As a general rule, to qualify for admission to the main campus a high school graduate will have to rank in the top third of his high school graduating class.

Bright students with mediocre high school records can still qualify on the basis of tests.

And, said Dean Thompson, Ohio State "will continue to admit all the high school graduates who apply." The difference will be that they may be admitted to a branch, either in Columbus or in one of the seven other cities which have such two-year facilities.

Between 1,500 and 2,000 freshmen are expected to enter the new Columbus branch. Main campus enrollment is limited to 6,300, about 400 fewer than last year.

Other state universities this year are imposing similar restrictions.

Senior Honor Student

Betty K. Cline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cline, 333 E. Ohio St., has been on the Circleville High School honor roll throughout her senior year with the exception of one grading period. It was reported yesterday that she was an honor student throughout her high school years.

Local Couples Attend KC Meet

Two Pickaway County couples were among the 1200 delegates who attended the 66th annual convention of the Knights of Columbus during the weekend at the Cleveland-Shreton Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Thornton, Route 2, and Mr. and Mrs. William Rich, 395 Sunnyview Drive, participated in the convention activities. Thornton is a past grand knight of the local Hannan Council, K of C, and Rich is warden for the local unit.

The Circleville council was cited as one of the leading units in the state in the six-point program contest conducted by the state council.

Social highlights of the convention included a Friday night pre-convention party for delegates and guests, a grand march and State Deputy's Ball on Saturday evening, a luncheon, tea and style show program.

Father Lacks Faith; Boy Tries Spree

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 17-year-old Euclid boy told a Juvenile Court judge he began a one-month crime spree because his father questioned his judgment and would not let him get a driver's license.

The youth told Judge Alter G. Whitlatch Monday: "When he said 'no,' and told me that he did not trust my judgment, I decided I could prove myself by stealing and not getting caught."

According to a probation officer, the youth is a top student at Euclid High School, active in a church youth group, a member of the school track team, and adept in mathematics. He also has an after-school and Saturday job.

Despite these achievements, the father admitted lack of faith in his son.

"He has never done anything to prove himself to me," the father said with a choked voice and tears in his eyes.

The youth and a 16-year-old companion were arrested recently by Lyndhurst police in a stolen car. Police say the boys admitted looting 21 homes in Euclid, Wickliffe, Willoughby Hills and Richmond Heights and stealing another car.

Said Judge Whitlatch: "What a strange situation this case presents. What more could a father ask of a son? If I had a boy like that, the buttons on my vest would be popping with pride."
